Disclaimer

The spelling of some names in this book may be perceived to be erroneous. In some instances, through human frailty, that assumption may be correct. However, Mrs. Noakes was very meticulous in copying census records, wills, obituaries, etc., as they were written in the official documents. One must appreciate that during the early years of our country there were many immigrants with many different languages and lingual accents. Also, there were those who had little or no education. A census taker or any other record keeper was on his own when it came to figuring out how to spell a name. Take for instance the French surname Politte (Po-leet). In America, a census taker turned it into Plote and then it became Pottle. The records listed in this book were written as they were recorded in the official documents and Mrs. Noakes has tried to include censuses with all related spellings.

While we wish this record were perfect, we know that there will be errors due to human nature, for which we apologize in advance.

What a Census Tells Us

Example:

!CENSUS:

1860 census enumerated 10 Aug 1860:

Name	Title	Age	DOB:		Vocation
John Doe		30	Feb 1830	MO MO ENG	Farmer	OF/F
Jane “	Wife	30	Aug 1830	KY TN SC	Keeps house
Kelly “	Dau	10	Apr 1850	MO MO KY	Att sch
Bailey “	Son	1/12	Jul 1859	MO MO KY
Mary Doe	Mother	50	Mar 1810	ENG ENG ENG	Wd/Single
Joe Buck	Bil	20	Jan 1840	MO TN SC	Laborer

In this census, John Doe is the head of household because he is listed first. He is 30 years old having been born in February of 1830. The first location position, MO, indicates John's birthplace. He was born in Missouri. The next MO indicates Missouri is his father's place of birth, and the next location position, ENG, indicates England as his mother's place of birth. John is a farmer who owns his farm free of mortgage (OF/F).

His wife, Jane is also 30 years having been born in August of 1830. She was born in Kentucky. Her father was born in Tennessee. Her mother was born in South Carolina. Jane is a housewife.

Kelly is the oldest living child. (Children are usually placed in birth order). Kelly is a daughter. She's 10 years old. She was born in April of 1850 in Missouri. Her father was born in Missouri. Her mother was born in Kentucky. Kelly attends school.

Bailey is a 1 month old son, (1/12 indicates 1 of 12 months). He was born July 1859 in Missouri. His father was born in Missouri. His mother was born in Kentucky.

Mary Doe is John's 50 year old mother. She was born March of 1810 in England. Her father and mother were both born in England. She is either a widow or single.

Joe Buck is John's 20 year-old brother-in-law (Bil) - (Jane's brother). He was born January 1840 in Missouri. His father was born in Tennessee. His mother was born in South Carolina. He is a laborer.

I. KENTUCKY ROOTS

1. William and Mary (Hill) Norcutt

Little is known of William Norcutt. The spelling of his surname, Norcutt, is a distinguishing factor which helps to identify him in the early records of Kentucky.

On March 3, 1796, in Lincoln County, Kentucky, he married Mary Hill, daughter of James Hill, the bondsman being Reuben Hill. William Norcutt is listed in the 1800 Tax List of Green County, Kentucky; since only heads of families were listed, the record contains no information regarding his age or his family.

Church records of the Reverend James Hill, Mary's father, offer clues to William's and Mary's whereabouts in 1810. In a book written by Dr. J. Chester Badgett and published by the Taylor Publishing Company in 1933, the author writes:

> "James Hill . . .served as pastor of the Tabernacle Separate Baptist Church in Adair County in 1809."
> – Campbellsville Baptist Church, a two-hundred year history, 1791-1991, page 15.

Adair County was formed in 1802 from Green County, Kentucky.

In the Adair County, Kentucky 1810 Tax List, a William Norcutt, Sr.(?) was taxed on 110(?) acres on Russell Creek, Adair County, Kentucky, which was originally entered in the name of Wm. Pulley; Number of white males over 21 being 1(one); no slaves. (Question marks are taken from the original record.)

Of interest is a second entry, for 40 acres on Russell Creek, originally entered in the name of Wm Pulley, listed under the name of William Northcutt. (Note the different spelling.) One might be tempted to think that this William Northcutt was a son of the first cited William Norcutt, Sr.(?); however, since William and Mary Norcutt were married in 1796, it is improbable.

Neither William Norcutt nor James Hill are enumerated in the census of Adair County, Kentucky, in 1810; but see 1810 census of Green County, Kentucky, page 252:

James Hill:

Males:	1(over 45), 1(16-26), 2(under 10)
Females:	1(over 45), 1(26-45), 2(under 10)

The ages of James and Mary Hill, in the above census record, are consistent with the male and female over 45 years of age; the age of their son James Hill, Jr. (born in 1786), is consistent with the male 16 to 26 years of age. The age of Mary (Hill) Norcutt's son Samuel, (born 1800), would be consistent with one of the male children under ten years of age. Identity of the remaining male child under 10 years of age has not yet been determined. The female 26 to 45 years of age is consistent with the age of Mary (Hill) Norcutt, (daughter of James and Mary Hill, born in 1780); and Mary's daughters, Matilda (born 1802) and Sarah "Sally" (born 1808), are the age of the two female children under ten.

While the possibility of a second son is under scrutiny, this is probably an opportune time to mention another early marriage record of Green County, Kentucky:

> A William Northcut married Charity Winn, 16 January 1816, the ceremony having been performed by a Thomas Whitman. A first son of William and Mary Norcutt would now be approaching the age of sixteen to eighteen years, however, and consent of a parent or guardian would be required.
> The age of the William Northcut who married Charity Winn is not yet established for lack of substantiating records. In the 1840 Census of Wayne County, Missouri, a Charity Northcut (50-60 years) is enumerated next to Thomas Northcut (20-30 years). In 1820, Charity would have been 30 to 40 years of age, and Thomas would have been under 10. Charity is not listed in the 1850 census index of Missouri; however, Thomas, age 34, and Bitha Northcutt, age 23, are listed that year in the census of Butler County, Missouri, with two sons: William Northcut, age 9, and Martin Northcut, age 5.

In the 1820 census of Kentucky several William Northcut's are enumerated. None of the records corresponds with the age of Mary (Hill) Northcut, however, it is the only constant we have of the remaining members of her family. Nor is she enumerated in the household of her parents.

By 1830 "Polly" Northcut is enumerated as head of her household, which included:

Males:	1(10-15), 1(5-10), 1(under 5).
Females:	1(40-50), 2(20-30).

Mary "Polly" Northcut, having been born in 1780, would be nearing fifty years of age; she was 70 in the 1850 census. Her daughters Matilda Northcutt, age 28, (48 in the 1850 census), and Sarah "Sally", age 22, (42 in the 1850 census), are apparently the female adults (20-30).

Who were the three boys under fifteen years of age? The eldest would have been born 1815-1820; the second would have been born 1820-1825, and the youngest would have been born 1825-1830. Relevant is the record of Samuel Northcut's marriage in 1819 wherein consent for his marriage, he being under the age of 21, was given by his mother. It may be that William Norcutt's work kept him away from the household, but records provide no further information pertaining to William Norcutt; and by 1830 Mary "Polly" Northcutt is enumerated as the head of household.

Some have speculated that the William Northcut who married Charity Winn in 1816 was Mary's husband, William Norcutt. The author is inclined to disagree for the following reasons:

1) The spelling of the surname (William Northcut & Charity Winn) instead of the distinguishing spelling (William Norcutt) is to be considered. Mary did not begin using the Northcut spelling until after the marriage of her son Samuel in 1819.

2) It would have been highly irregular for a married man, with children, and who is a son-in-law of a prominent minister, to marry another wife in the same locality as his wife and his children, and of his wife's family.

3) Further, there would be the matter of paternity of Mary's three sons born between the years 1815 and 1830.

It would seem more likely that William Norcutt died between 1825 and 1830, and that Mary was a widow when the 1830 census of Kentucky was enumerated.

To rule out the possibility that the boys might have been sons of Mary's second husband, James G. Sharp, we cite the record of his marriage to Frances Greenwell in 1860, wherein Mr. Sharp states that it is his second marriage. Further evidence that the three boys were not children of James G. Sharp is provided by the census records of his household, which are herewith presented:

Note: James G. Sharp was 67 in the 1850 census of Taylor County, which was created from Green County, Kentucky, in 1848. Thus he would have been 57 in 1840; 47 in 1830. 37 in 1820.

Here are the records:

1820 Census of Green County, Kentucky:
John Sharp:
Males: 1(over 45); 1(26-45).
Females: 1(over 45).

James G. Sharp would have been the male 26 to 45 years of age. His parents, John and Nancy J. Sharp are the most likely candidates for the older male and female in the household (over 45).

1830 Census of Green County, Kentucky:
James Sharp:
Males: 1(40-50); 1(70-80).

James G. Sharp would have been the male 40 to 50 and his father John Sharp, the male 70 to 80.

1840 Census of Green County, Kentucky:
James G. Sharp:
Males: 1(50-60); 1(30-40); 2(20-30); 1(15-20).
Females: 1(50-60); 1(40-50).

(James G. Sharp married Mary Northcut in 1832, so her family would have been included in his household in the census of 1840. The marriage bond is dated 19 July 1832, bondsmen being James G. Sharp and Mathew Taylor. Consent was given by the Bride. Witness: Mathew Taylor.)

James G. Sharp would be the male 50-60; the two males 20-30 would likely be the boys aged 15-20 and 20-25 enumerated in Mary's household in 1830. The male 30-40 is not identified; it is possible he was a hired hand helping with the farmwork.

1850 Census of Taylor County, Kentucky:
James G. Sharp Age 67 Place of Birth: Virginia Vocation: Farmer
Value of Real Estate: $10,000
Mary Sharp Age 70 Place of Birth: Virginia
Matilda Northcut Age 48 Place of Birth: Kentucky
William Sharp Age 26 Place of Birth: Kentucky Vocation: Farmer
William W. Sharp Age 6 Place of Birth: Kentucky.

William Sharp, age 26, is the age of the youngest of the three boys in Mary's household in 1830.

Mary "Polly" (Hill) Norcutt Sharp died in 1855 in that part of Green County, Kentucky, from which Taylor County, Kentucky, had been created two years previously. Record of her death is located on page 65, Taylor County Kentucky Vital Statistics, Deaths: 1852-59, 1861, 1874-79, 1893-94, 1901, 1903, 1904, compiled by Dewayne Wilson, (US/CAN 976.9673 V28wd), a copy being located in the Family History Library, 35 North West Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah 84150. The record follows:

> MARY SHARP Age 76 Occupation: Housekeeper
> Residence: Taylor County, Kentucky Parents: James and Mary Hill
> Place of Birth: Buckingham, Virginia Place of Death: Taylor Co., Kentucky
> Date of Death: October 19, 1855 Cause of Death: Old age.

James G. Sharp remarried five years after Mary's death. See following marriage record:

> Marriage Records of Taylor County, Kentucky Book 3, Page 192:
> JAMES G. SHARP; Number of marriage: 2; Parents: John and Nancy J. Sharp;
> FRANCES GREENWELL; Number of marriage: 2; Parents: James & Polly Majors Penn; Marriage date: 26 Apr 1860; Consent given by: Bride; Bondsman: R.H. Spratt (Reazin Spratt was the widower of Sarah "Sally" Northcut Spratt.)

1860 census records of Taylor County, Kentucky, provide more information on the three males in Mary "Polly" Norcutt's household in 1830. (Household numbering sequence in the census has been preserved.)

Are these men, surnamed Sharp, sons of "Polly" and William Norcutt, who took the surname of their mother's second husband following their father's death and remarriage of their mother? Of some significance is the absence of Northcut households in the 1860 census.

James G. Sharp was a farmer of means, as was his father before him. From the records, it appears he provided a goodly inheritance for these children who played a significant role in his life in these later years.

Possible children of William and Polly Hill Norcutt:

M i. Norcutt, born 1800-1810, Lincoln or Green County, Kentucky.
M ii. Samuel Northcut, born 1800-1810, Lincoln or Green County, Kentucky.
F iii. Martha/Matilda Northcut, born 1802, Lincoln or Green County, Kentucky.
F iv. Sarah (Sally) Northcut, born 1808, Lincoln or Green County, Kentucky.
M v. Northcut, born 1815-1820, Green County, Kentucky.
M vi. Northcut, born 1820-1825, Green County, Kentucky.
M vii. Northcut, born 1825-1830, Green County, Kentucky.

ii. Samuel Northcut was born 1800/1810 in Kentucky and died before 1850, probably in Missouri. He married Nancy Sally, daughter of John Sally, in Green County, Kentucky, 26 April 1819, his mother having given consent 21 April 1819. His maternal grandfather, the Rev. James Hill, performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by Richard Wright and Samuel Hill. Bondsmen were Samuel Northcut and Samuel Hill.

1830 Green County, Kentucky, census enumerates the members of Samuel's household as follows, page 53:
Sam'l Northcut
Males: 1(20-30), 1(5-10), 1(under 5)
Females: 1(20-30), 1(10-15), 2(5-10), 1(under 5)

1840 census record of Samuel and Nancy (Sally) Northcutt has not yet been located, either in Kentucky or in Missouri, though it is apparent that the family left Kentucky shortly after enumeration of the 1830 census of Kentucky and began moving westward to the area of Franklin, Crawford and Washington Counties, Missouri. Two of their daughters, Elizabeth and Sarah, married in Franklin County, Missouri, in 1840. By 1850, most of the family had settled in Washington County.

Samuel's wife, Nancy (Sally) Northcut, probably a widow by 1850, was enumerated in the household of her son George Washington Northcutt, age 23, and his bride Susan Jackson, age 18, when the census of Washington County, Missouri, was enumerated on the 29th of October 1850. Two of Nancy's unmarried children were also members of the household: Eliza Jane Northcut, age 17, born in Missouri, and Martha Northcut, age 12, also born in Missouri. The census record follows:

1850 Washington County, Missouri, Johnson Township, Dwelling #932, Family #932,
Page No. 155 (309/310), enumerated 29 October 1850:

George Northcut	Age 23	Male	born in Kentucky	Vocation: Farmer
Susan Northcut	Age 18	Female	birthplace not reported
Nancy Northcut	Age 46	Female	born in Kentucky
Martha Northcut	Age12	Female	born in Missouri
Eliza J. Northcut	Age17	Female	born in Missouri

Note: George and Susan Northcut indicated they were married within the year and that neither could read or write. Martha and Eliza Northcut probably had been given an opportunity to attend schools for both indicated they could read and write.

Nancy (Sally) Northcutt is not included in the 1860 census index of Missouri. A marriage record has not yet been located, which would indicate a second marriage. It is possible that she died before 1860, though she was only 46 years of age in 1850.

Probable children of Samuel and Nancy Northcut/Northcutt:

F	i.	Northcut, born 1815/1820, Green County, Kentucky.
F	ii.	Elizabeth Northcut, born 1822, Green County, Kentucky.
F	iii.	Mary Pauline Northcutt, born 1823, Green County, Kentucky.
M	iv.	John Northcutt, born about 1824, Green County, Kentucky.
M	v.	George W. Northcutt, born 5 December 1825, Green County,
F	vi.	Sarah Ann Northcut, born 1827, in Green County, Kentucky.
F	vii.	Eliza Jane Northcut, born 1833, in Missouri.
F	viii.	Martha Northcut, born 1838, in Missouri.

iii. Matilda Northcut, 48, born Kentucky, was enumerated in the household of James G. Sharp in the 1850 census of Taylor County, Kentucky, (created in 1848 from Green County, Kentucky), which would make her date of birth about 1802. She was included in the household of her mother in the census enumerations prior to 1840.

Matilda's mother, Mary Hill Norcutt/Northcut, had remarried in July of 1832, and Matilda was included in her step-father's household in 1850. After her mother's death, 19 October 1855, James G. Sharp remarried (26 April 1860), and no further record of Matilda Northcut has been located. Apparently she did not marry or have children.

iv. Sarah "Sally" Northcut was born 1808, probably in Green County, Kentucky. She married Reazin Spratt in Green County, Kentucky, in 1834, shortly after her mother's remarriage in 1832. Her mother's second husband, James G. Sharp, was one of her bondsmen and served also as a witness of the marriage ceremony, which was performed by a relative of the groom. Below is a copy of the marriage record:

Green County [Kentucky] Marriage Records, 1793-1836, page 50; (Book B, Page 129):
Reazin Spratt and Sally Northcut; bond: 10 Jun 1834;
Bondsmen: Reason Spratt & James G. Sharp
Consent: Bride
Witness: James G. Sharp
Married: 12 Jun 1834 by Enoch Spratt.

The following census records provide a framework for their marriage of almost 30 years. Apparently Sarah was seriously ill during the later years of her marriage. Her cause of death is listed as consumption, a fairly common cause of illness and death in that early period.

Sarah Spratt	Age 52 born in Kentucky

Following is a record of Sarah Northcut Spratt's death:

Taylor County Kentucky Vital Statistics, Deaths, 1852- 59, 1861, 1874-79, 1893-94, 1901, 1903, 1904, compiled by Dewayne Wilson, page 69:

Rezin R. Spratt married a second and a third time; marriage records provide the following information:

2. Rev. James Hill & Mary, his wife

James Hill played a prominent role in the early pioneer Baptist churches in South-Central Kentucky. H.S. Robinson stated in an unpublished paper, without documentation, that . . .

> "James Hill [was] an ordained Baptist minister in Virginia before [he] migrated to Kentucky."

Dr. J. Chester Badgett in his book, "Campbellsville Baptist Church, a two-hundred year history, 1791-1991", says of him:

> "A James Hill was born in Norfolk, England, May 18, 1756. His trade was that of coppersmith. He left Norfolk and arrived in America at the age of 26. He was a small man standing five feet and five inches in height. He was married on March 25, 1762 in Augusta County, Virginia, where court records revealed that he did jury duty and worked as an administrator of an estate from 1767 to 1777. He served in the Virginia Militia in the Revolutionary War. Military records in Virginia showed payment to James Hill for a kettle and other supplies provided to the Continental Army. The records revealed that James Hill moved from Albemarle, Virginia, to Buckingham County, Virginia, for a few years and then moved to Kentucky about 1789. He evidently continued his trade as a coppersmith in Kentucky. With his skill, he undoubtedly was welcomed to the frontier settlement which desperately needed the articles he could provide. It is possible that Rev. James Hill was a son of this James Hill and could have shared with his father the skill of coppersmith."

If the date of birth for James Hill, given above, is correct – and he was 26 when he arrived in America – he would have arrived in this country about 1782, at the end of the Revolutionary War, so would not have served in the Virginia Militia. Had he married in 1762, he would have been but six years of age.

Despite these obvious inconsistencies, the record provides a framework for Rev. James Hill's life and ministry.

Through marriage records of early Kentucky, four of James and Mary Hill's children can be identified:

2) Mary, who married William Norcut, 3 March 1796; Lincoln County
3) Nancy, who married David New, (B) 7 February 1800; Green County, Kentucky

4) Betsy, who married Joseph Mann; 29 December 1799, Green County, Kentucky
5) James, who married Anny Douglas, 10 October 1811, Green County, Kentucky

The death record of Mary (Hill) Norcut Sharp indicates she was born in Buckingham, Virginia, to James and Mary Hill, and died 19 October 1855, in Taylor County, Kentucky, at the age of 76 years.

James Hill is listed in the Buckingham County [Virginia] Personal Property Tax List A for 1787. Charged only with tax for "sellf", the Number of White Males (16 & 21): None. Number of Slaves over 16: None. Slaves under 16: None. Horses, mares, colts, and mules: 3. Cattle: 6.

James Hill, of Madison County, in the First Census of Kentucky, 1790 (Tax List) is included under the year 1789. Madison County was formed in 1786 from part of Lincoln County.

James and Reuben Hill are included in the 1800 Tax List of Green County, Kentucky. Reuben Hill served as bondsman for the marriage of James Hill's daughter Mary to William Norcutt in Lincoln County, 3 March 1796. In 1810 a Reuben Hill over 45 years of age is enumerated in Cumberland County, Kentucky, page 172; and a Reuben Hill, age 26 but not yet 45 is listed in Wayne County, Kentucky.

James Hill's family is included in the 1810 and 1820 census enumerations of Green County, Kentucky, but neither James nor Mary Hill is included in the Green County 1830 census. April 20, 1824 was the date of marriage last performed by Rev. James Hill as recorded in the book, "Green County Marriage Records 1793-1836".

Neither James nor Mary Hill are included in the 1830 Green County census, which is an indication that both died between the years 1820 and 1830.

3. William P. and Jinny (Sally) Jackson

Marriage bond for Will P. Jackson and Jinny Sally, recorded on page 27, Green County Marriage Records 1793 - 1836, is dated 9 November 1810; bondsmen were Wm P. Jackson and John Sally. No further information is recorded.

In EDGAR SPRINGS, Its History, Its People, beginning with page 150, Mrs. Colleen Arthur writes:

> Willie Jackson
> John Pentacost Jackson, a Revolutionary War Soldier, was the father of Willie Jackson (Jacson). Willie was born in Green County, Kentucky and married Jinny Sally of Kentucky on November 9, 1810.

In the afore cited reference, Will and Jinny Jackson are credited with six children, whose names are given as follows:

1.	George	No further information
2.	John	Who married first Emily Pain and second Mary Wilson, wife of Bushwhacker Bill Wilson

3.	Phillip	Who married first a Baker and second to Catherine Hamilton
4.	Frances (Frank) Minet	Married first Cecelia Renaud and second to Sarah Jane Christian
5.	Martha Patsy	Born 15 June 1820 and died 17 January 1911. She married James Lawrence Sullivan (called Major) on February 23, 1837. They had fourteen children.
6.	Polly	Married Henry Kepler (Capler).

Kentucky is given as the birthplace for sons John, born 1816, and Phillip. Frances Minet (Frank) Jackson's date of birth, January 11, 1832, and birthplace, Missouri, are given on page 156.

William P. Jackson is enumerated in the 1830 census of Washington County, Missouri, Meramec Township, page 72, as follows:

Males: 1(40-50), 2(15-20), 1(10-15), 2(under 5)
Females: 1(40-50), 1(10-15), 3(5-10), 1(under 5)

Reconstruction of possible children in the household of Will P. Jackson in 1830 gleaned from early records:

Will P. Jackson	1780-1790	Green County, Kentucky
Jinny (Sally) Jackson	1780-1790	Green County, Kentucky
Phillip Jackson	1810-1815	Green County, Kentucky
Smith Jackson	1810-1815	Green County, Kentucky
Mary "Polly" Jackson	1815-1820	Green County, Kentucky
John J. Jackson	1815-1820	Green County, Kentucky
Martha "Patsy" Jackson	1820-1825	Green County, Kentucky
Sarah "Sally" Jackson	1820-1825	Green County, Kentucky
Female	1820-1825	Unknown
Andrew Jackson	1825-1830	Missouri
Male	1825-1830	Missouri
Female	1825-1830	Missouri

Will P. Jackson isn't listed in the 1840 census index for Missouri. Jinny Jackson died before 14 June 1835, the date of Will P.'s second marriage. Mahala Hamilton Garret was a young widow with two daughters, Elizabeth and Sallie, whom Will married in Washington County, Missouri on the above date.

William Jackson family, 1850 census, Washington County, Missouri, Johnson Township, Dwelling/Family: #926/#926, page 155B(309) enumerated 29 October 1850:

William Jackson	60	b. Kentucky
Mahala Jackson	48	b. Kentucky
Sally [Garrett]	17	b. Kentucky
Jasper Jackson	14	b. Missouri
Thomas N. Jackson	10	b. Missouri
Lucinda Jackson (twin)	7	b. Missouri
Richard Jackson (twin)	7	b. Missouri
Lafayette Jackson	6	b. Missouri
Bisay [Visey] Jackson	4	b. Missouri

Conflict: Mahala (Hamilton) Garrett Jackson gives her age as 48 in both the 1850 and 1860 census enumerations. The 1870 census index of Missouri does not include Mahala or Will P. Jackson; however, the 1880 census enumeration lists Mahala Jackson's age as 76, which would indicate that she was born about 1804. In 1860, then, her age should be 56, and in 1850, 46. Sally's age, 17 in 1850, would indicate 1833 as her date of birth. Elizabeth Garrett, who married first a Marshall and second Peter Wise, gives her age as 79 in 1910, making her birth date about 1831.

Where were Will P. Jackson and Mahala, his wife, in 1840? Relevant to this matter is the recording of two marriages between Will P. Jackson and Mahala Garrett:

Book A., page 119, Washington County, Missouri, marriage record:
William P. Jackson and Mahaly Garret were married 24 June 1835 by James J. Johnson, J.P.
Book A., page 248, Washington County, Missouri, marriage record:
William P. Jackson and Mahalia Garret were married 30 July 1844 by Jonas M. Anthony, J.P.

Another record worthy of consideration is the enumeration of one William P. Jackson in Hopkins County, Kentucky, Line 11, Page 387:

William P. Jackson	Age 50-60	Vocation: Manufacture and trades
Female	Age 20-30
Male	Age 10-15
Male	Age 5-10
Male	Age 5-10
Female	Age 5-10
Female	Age 5-10
Male	Age Under 5
Male	Age Under 5

William P. Jackson was 40-50 in the 1830 census; thus making the age 50-60 in 1840 consistent with his age.

Mahala wasn't certain of her birth date in later censuses. If we were to take her age given in 1860, which was 48, her computed age would have been 38 in 1850 and 28 in 1840, which would qualify her for the female age 20-30 in the above 1840 census. The younger age would appear to be more realistic for Mahala (date of birth being 1812 instead of 1804); she would have been 21 when Elizabeth was born in 1831 and 24 when Sallie was born in 1833.

John J. Jackson age in 1830, being 5-10, would be consistent with the male aged 10-15.

Frances Minet (Frank) Jackson, having been born in 1832, would qualify for one of the male children 5-10 years.

Elizabeth and Sallie Garret, age 20 and 17 in 1850, would qualify for the two female children 5-10 years of age.

Mahala's first two children by William P. Jackson, Jasper (14 in 1850) and Thomas N. (10 in 1850) would qualify for the two male children under 5.

Will P. Jackson isn't listed in the 1840 census index for Missouri. Jinny Jackson died before 14 June 1835, the date of Will P.'s second marriage. Mahala Hamilton Garret was a young widow with two daughters, Elizabeth and Sallie, whom Will married in Washington County, Missouri on the above date.

William Jackson family, 1850 census, Washington County, Missouri, Johnson Township, Dwelling/Family: #926/#926, page 155B(309) enumerated 29 October 1850:

William Jackson	60	b. Kentucky
Mahala Jackson	48	b. Kentucky
Sally [Garrett]	17	b. Kentucky
Jasper Jackson	14	b. Missouri
Thomas N. Jackson	10	b. Missouri
Lucinda Jackson (twin)	7	b. Missouri
Richard Jackson (twin)	7	b. Missouri
Lafayette Jackson	6	b. Missouri
Bisay [Visey] Jackson	4	b. Missouri

1860 Washington County, Missouri, Johnson Township, Post Office: Rock Spring, Dwelling 839, Family 832, Page No. 124, enumerated 24 July 1860:

William P. Jackson	Age 74	b. Virginia
Mahala Jackson	Age 48	b. Missouri
Richard Jackson	Age 20	b. Missouri
Lafayette Jackson	Age 17	b. Missouri
Levitha Jackson	Age 14	b. Missouri
Eliza Jackson	Age 10	b. Missouri

1880 Washington County, Missouri, Johnson Township, Superintendent's District: 2, Enumeration District: 175, Dwelling 48, Family 48, Page No.5, enumerated 8 June 1880:

Mahala Jackson		Age 76	b. Missouri	Parents b. Kentucky/Kentucky
Thomas Wise	Sil	Age 33	b. Missouri	Parents b. Missouri/Missouri
Visy Wise	Wife	Age 30	b. Missouri	Parents b. Missouri/Missouri
John (nmi) Wise		Age 10	b. Missouri	Parents b. Missouri/Missouri
Richard Henry Wise		Age 8	b. Missouri	Parents b. Missouri/Missouri
William Allen Wise		Age 6	b. Missouri	Parents b. Missouri/Missouri

None of the adults in the family can read or write, which explains the inconsistency of ages listed in census records of different years. All three of the children are listed as "son".

Lafayette Jackson, son of Will P. and Mahala (Hamilton) Jackson, enlisted as a Private in Company B, 31st Regiment of the Missouri Volunteers commanded by Thomas C. Fletcher and died of illness at the Van Buren Hospital, Louisiana on the 25th of May 1863. His mother, Mahala Jackson, was awarded a pension of $8/month commencing January 28, 1867 (No. 92, 147), arrears of pension due from May 26, 1863 to January 27, 1867being approved December 10, 1879. Pension, which had been increased to $12/month, was last paid to 4 November 1895, when it was discontinued because of death of Mahala Jackson.

Application for Letters of Administration, Washington County, Missouri, in the matter of Mahala Jackson, deceased, Richard H. Jackson says that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the names of the heirs of said Mahala Jackson, deceased, and their places of residence are respectively, as follows:

Jasper Jackson	Washington County, Missouri

Elizabeth Wise	Washington County, Missouri
Sallie DeClue	Washington County, Missouri
Lucinda Garrett	Franklin County, Missouri
Vicey Wise	Not reported
Heirs of Thomas Jackson	Not reported

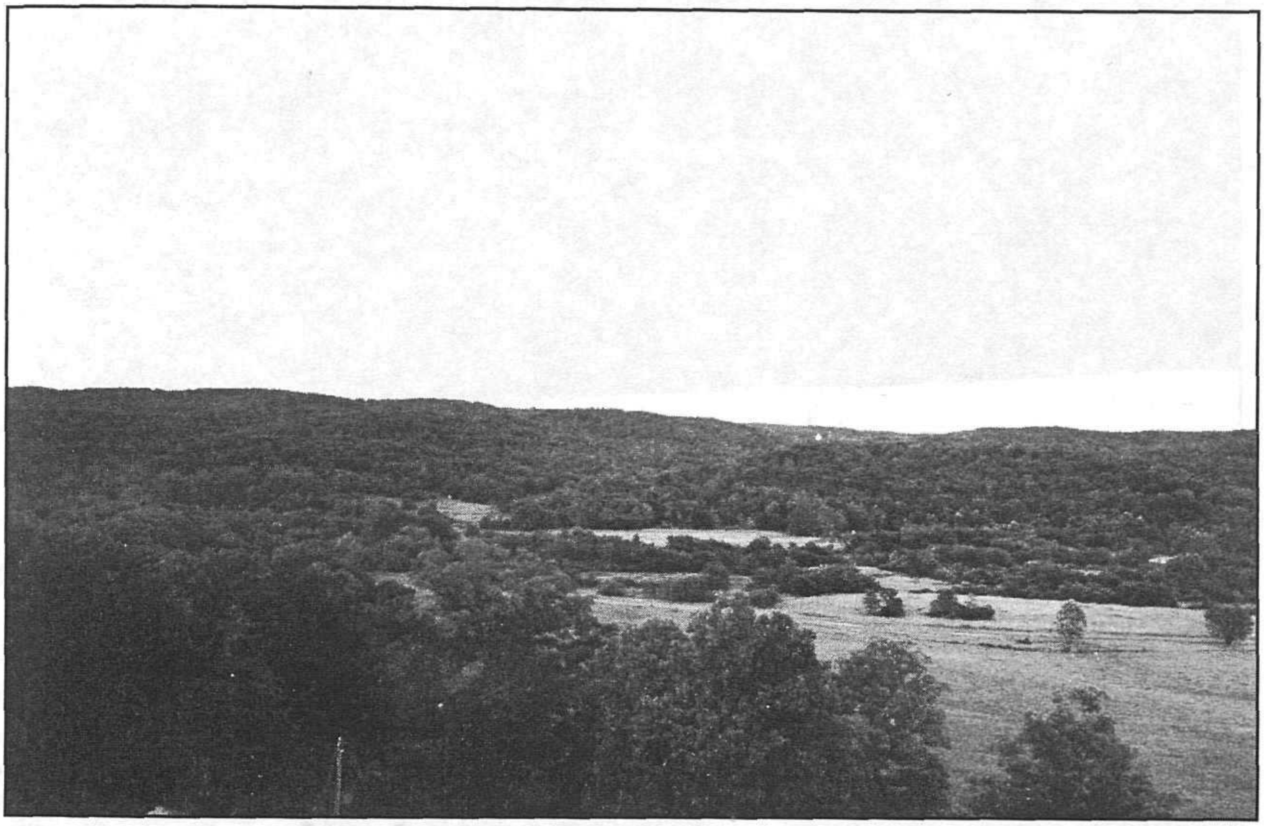
4. John Sally Family

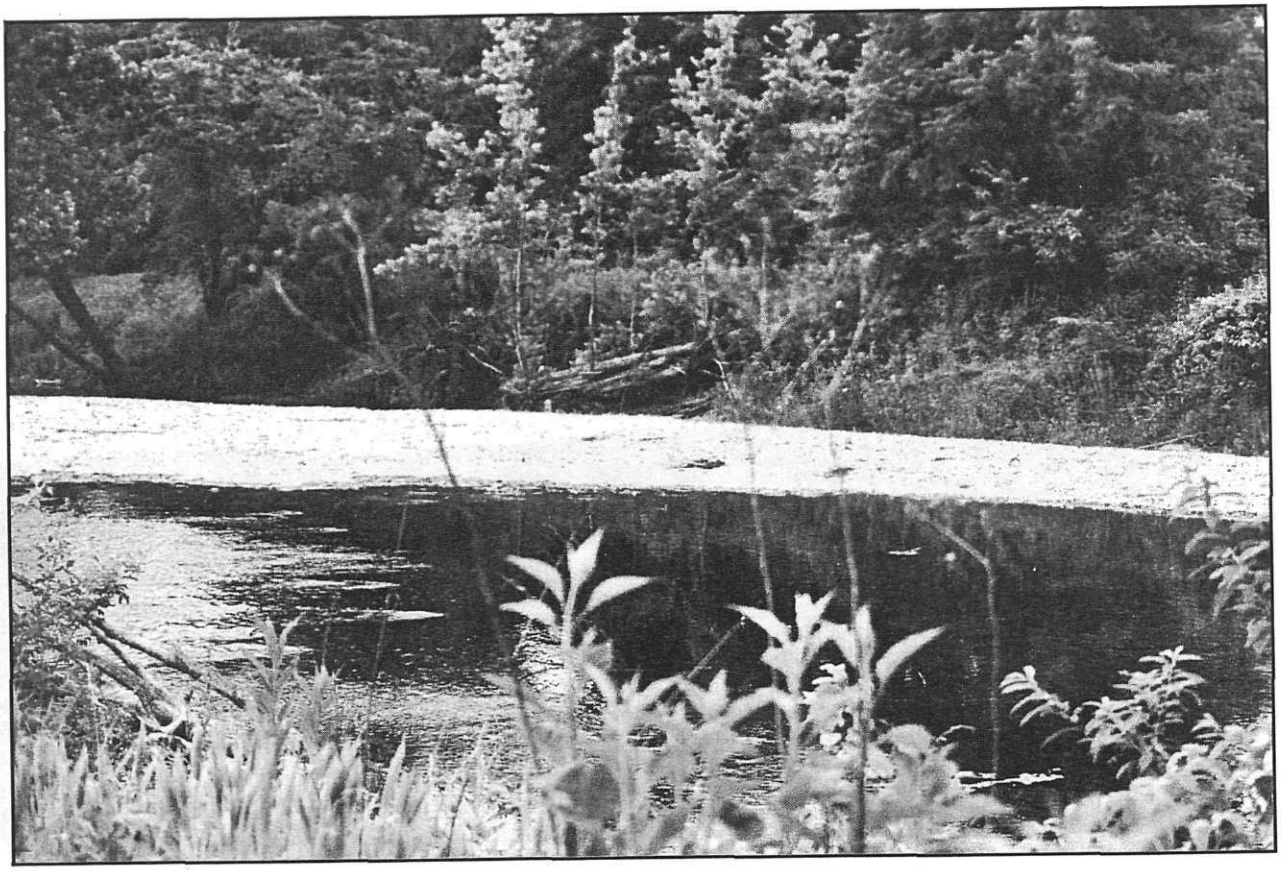
(I don’t know if Mother found no information on this family, or if she passed away before putting it into the book.)

II. IN MISSOURI



Indian Creek Valley

This may be what this beloved valley looked like when our forebears first laid eyes on it. They brought the fertile land into subjection and it fed them. They hunted the forests and fished the rivers and were rewarded with an abundance of wild game, fish, nuts, fruits and berries that would nurture many generations, but it was the time spent meeting their challenges, working, playing, and just plain living, and loving one another that wove the magical memories that have become a part of our heritage.



Big Indian Creek
This creek was a lifeline for the people in Indian Creek Valley. It provided life-giving water for drinking, household use, watering crops, and recreation.

1. Children of Samuel and Nancy (Sally) Northcut and Their Descendants

ii. Elizabeth Northcut

In the 1850 census of Washington County, Missouri, Richwoods Township, enumerated on the 26th day of October 1850, Elizabeth Cenanam (illegible) is included in the household of Thomas Flanegan, Household #886, Family #886. The record indicates that she was born in Kentucky and is 28 years of age. Two of her children, Samuel J., age 8, born in Missouri, and Mary J., age 5, born in Missouri, are also listed in the Flanegan household.

Elizabeth is one of the two daughters of Samuel and Nancy (Sally) Northcut who married in Franklin County, Missouri in 1840. Elizabeth married Wm SIMMERMAN, 15 March 1840, Marriage Book A, page 164, Franklin County, Missouri.

Marriage record for Elizabeth Northcut and Wm Simmerman is also listed in Franklin County Missouri Marriages, page 48, compiled by Dorothy Murray for HUNTING FOR BEARS INC., P.O. BOX 204, N.S.L., UT (801) 298-6339.

Children of William and Elizabeth Simmerman:

M	i.	Samuel J. Simmerman, born 1842, Missouri.
F	ii.	Mary J. Simmerman, born 1845, Missouri.

Samuel J. Simmerman was born about 1842 in Missouri.
Samuel J. Cenanam, age 8, is listed in the household of Thomas and Sarah A. (Northcut) Flanegan, with his mother, Elizabeth, in the 1850 census of Richwoods Township, Washington County, Missouri, page 152b(303), enumerated 26th of October 1850.

Marriage record, Washington County, Missouri, Volume C, page 76:
Samuel J. Simmerman and Sarah C. Fisher, both of Richwoods Township, were married 22 April 1866 by James L. Lannen, J.P.

Mary J. Simmerman was born about 1845 in Missouri.
Only listing found for Mary is the 1850 census of Richwoods Township, Washington County, Missouri, page 152 b (303): Mary J. Cenanam, age 5, is listed in the household of Thomas and Sarah A. (Northcut) Flanegan, with her mother, Elizabeth Cenanam.

iii. Mary Pauline Northcut

Records of St. Stephen's Parish, Richwoods, Missouri, May 1881 to October 1892, provide the clue for this family relationship. Margaret (Wise) Declue, born 1853, was baptized 9 January 1882. Her parents, of record, are Peter Wise and Maria Pauline Northcutt. Sponsor is Elizabeth Flanagan, daughter of Thomas and Sarah (Northcutt) Flanagan.

Both Peter Wise and Mary Pauline Northcut were born in Kentucky: Peter in 1816, and Mary in 1825. Their marriage record has not been located; since Mary was too young in 1830 for marriage, it is likely that they were married in Missouri. Mimeographed copy of the 1850 census of Crawford County, Missouri, compiled by Elizabeth Prather Ellsberry, page 61, reads as follows:

P. Wise	Age 34 Male	born in Kentucky
M. Wise	Age 25 Female	born in Kentucky
G.W. Wise	Age 8 Male	born in Missouri
W.T. Wise	Age 3 Male	born in Missouri
P. Wise	Age 1 Male	born in Missouri

By 1860 the family had moved, as recorded in the following census:

1860 Franklin County, Missouri, Prairie Township, Post Office: Grubville, #827/827, Page No. 108, enumerated 22 September 1860:

Peter Wise	Age 40 Male, born in Missouri; Vocation: Miner
May Wise	Age 37 Female, born in Missouri
George Wise	Age 12 Male, born in Missouri
Peter Wise	Age 10 Male, born in Missouri
Thomas Wise	Age 8 Male, born in Missouri
Besey Wise	Age 6 Female, born in Missouri
May Wise	Age 4 Female, born in Missouri

Peter and Mary (Northcut) Wise had the following children:

M i. George W. Wise, born 1848, in Kentucky.
M ii. Peter Wise, born February 1850, in Missouri.
M iii. William Thomas Wise, born 7 March 1852, in Missouri.
F iv. Bessey Wise, born 1854, in Missouri.
F v. Margaret May Wise, born 1856, in Missouri.

iv. John Northcutt

John Northcutt, Sr. was born about 1824, probably in Green County, Kentucky. He died 25 November 1883 in Johnson Township, Washington County, Missouri, and was buried November 1883, probably in the Bryant (New Hope) Cemetery of Washington County, Missouri.

The proximity of his family to the dwelling of George Northcut and Nancy (Sally) Northcut, his mother, in the enumeration of the 1850 census of Washington County, Missouri, suggests he was a member of the Samuel Northcut family; the two families are separated by only three dwellings. His age, 26 years, and his place of birth, Kentucky, are other meaningful factors, since they place him within the family in the proper sequence, place and year of birth.

A marriage record has not been found for John Northcutt, hence there is some conflict concerning the surname of his wife, Eliza. Some of his descendants believe her maiden name was Baker, while the notes that accompany New Hope (Bryant) Cemetery suggest otherwise:

> "John Northcutt II, born, 1817, in Harrison County, Kentucky, was a cousin to Samuel Philip Northcutt*. [John] married Elizabeth Salle, born 1825, Kentucky."

*Samuel Philip Northcutt was the youngest child of George W. and Susan (Jackson) Northcutt, in whose home George's mother, Nancy (Sally) Northcut, resided when the 1850 census of Washington County, Missouri, was enumerated in that year.

The above-cited cemetery note conflicts with available records:

> John Northcut was 26 in 1850 and Eliza, his wife, was 24, making the year of birth for John 1824, and for Eliza 1826. Eliza indicates she was born in Missouri, not in Kentucky. If John is a member of the Samuel and Nancy (Sally) Northcutt family, he would have been born in Green County, Kentucky, not in Harrison County, Kentucky.

Washington County Death Register, 1883-1886, includes the following:

Northcut, John, Sr., age 67y 3m 14d, d 25 Nov 1883;
Lawyer, widower, born Indian Creek. In Mo. 42 yrs.

Calculated date of birth from above death date would be August 11, 1816; and John would have come to Missouri in 1841, thus he could not have been born on Indian Creek, where he lived in Washington County, Missouri.

Application for Letters of Administration in the matter of the Estate of John Northcutt, Deceased, was filed by John Northcutt, Jr., 2nd day of January A.D. 1884. His date of death is not recorded in the instrument. Andrew Casey, Judge of Probate, signed the instrument, which bears upon its face: "Subscribed and sworn to before me this 2nd day of January A.D. 1883." On the reverse side of the Application, however, the date of 2nd January 1884 is inscribed as the filing date of the instrument.

Cemetery record has not been located.

The above-cited records would place the birth and death dates of John Northcutt, Sr.:

Birth: About 1824, Green County, Kentucky
Death: 25 November 1883, Washington County, Missouri

The identity of Eliza, wife of John Northcutt, is the next matter for consideration. In the 1850 census of Washington County, Missouri, David and Catherine Baker and their family lived at Dwelling #925, just seven dwellings from George W. and Susan (Jackson) Northcutt and ten dwellings from John and Eliza Northcutt.

1830 Census, Washington County, Missouri, includes the following enumeration:

Nat Baker
Males: 1(40-50), 2(10-15);
Females: 1(40-50), 1(15-20), 1(5-10).

David Baker
Males: 1(20-30), 1(15-20), 1(under 5)
Females: 1(15-20)

David Baker, enumerated in the same census with Nat Baker in the above census, was born in 1804 (see 1850 census of Washington County, Missouri), and is the son of Nat(han) Baker, as verified in the biographical sketch which follows:

> David N. Baker, an agriculturist of Washington County, was born in the county in which he now resides, December 22, 1830. His father, whose name was also David N,. was a native of Kentucky, and was born in July 1808, locating in Washington County, Missouri, about 1827; he married Catherine Capeler, who was of German ancestry, and of the fourteen children born to their union twelve are still living. The father was killed September 4, 1862, and the mother died October 4, 1881. David N. was the second son, and was born and reared on a farm in Washington County; he now owns 440 acres of land and devotes his entire attention to the pursuit of farming. May 23, 1852, he married Margaret A. Yarbrough, who was born in Tennessee but was reared in Missouri, and is a daughter of Thomas G. and Mahala (Brown) Yarbrough. Mr. and Mrs. Baker have six children living, viz.: Sarah C., the wife of Z.T. Hale; Mary A., the wife of Tony Algire, Martha J., the wife of PeterVan Marren; Joseph H., James W., and Susan M., now Mrs. J. Compton.
> – Courtesy of History of Franklin, Jefferson, Washington, Crawford & Gasconade Counties, Missouri, page 968.

In A Genealogical Record of the Moses Baker Family, 1708 - 1979, page 32, is a record of this same Nathan Baker, who is a son of James and Phareby Baker, born about 1783 in North Carolina. He married Polly New, daughter of Jethro New, on February 28, 1804, in Gallatin County, Kentucky. The record states that Nathan and Polly Baker moved to Washington County, Missouri, before 1830, but does not include names of their children.

Below are the census records for Nathan and Polly (New) Baker for 1810 and 1820:

1810 Census, Gallatin County, Kentucky, page 32:
Nathan Baker
Males: 1(26-45), 2(under 10)
Females: 1(26-45), 1(under 10)

1820 Census, Scott County, Indiana, page 158:
Nathan Baker
Males: 1(26-40), 1(10-16), 2(under 10)
Females: (See note below)

In the 1820 census the Nathan Baker family was enumerated on the last line of the census page. The photographer who copied the original record for the archives inadvertently permitted the right side of the page to slip out of range of the camera lens, so the record of females in the family is not included in the 1820 census record.

In summary: The female child 5-10 in the Nat Baker household in 1830 would have been born 1820-1825, which would make Eliza a likely candidate because of her age of 26 years in 1850; (her date of birth would have been about 1824). Since the Sally family did not move to Washington County, Missouri, from Kentucky, and since the Salle/Sally surname had been part of family tradition for over one hundred years, the Salle/Sally surname would have been understandably confused with John's wife instead of his mother, Nancy (Sally)

Northcutt. It would appear that in all probability Eliza Northcutt was the daughter of Nathan and Polly (New) Baker.

Following census and probate records establish members of John and Eliza (Baker) Northcutt's family:

1850 Washington County, Missouri, Johnson Township, Dwlg/Fam #936/936, page 155, enumerated 29th of October 1850:

John Northcutt	Age	26	Male	born in Kentucky
Eliza Northcutt	Age	24	Female	born in Missouri
Angelina Northcutt	Age	5	Female	born in Missouri
William Northcutt	Age	4	Male	born in Missouri
Nancy J. Northcutt	Age	2	Female	born in Missouri
Sarah A. Northcutt	Age	2/12	Female	born in Missouri
John Hamilton*	Age	18	Male	born in Kentucky

Note: *John Hamilton was enumerated a second time in the household of Philip Jackson in the 1850 census; he was probably the younger brother of Catherine Hamilton, second wife of Philip Jackson, whose marriage was consummated in Washington County, Missouri, 24 May 1836, following the death of Philip's first wife, another member of the Baker family, but that's another story.

1860 Washington County, Missouri, Johnson Township, Post Office: Rock Spring, Missouri, Dwlg/Fam #810/803, page 119, enumerated 1st of June 1860:

John Northcutt	Age 35	Male	Kentucky	Farmer $500/500
Eliza Northcutt	Age 35	Female	Kentucky	Cannot read or write
Angeline Northcutt	Age 14	Female	Missouri
Gideon Northcutt	Age 13	Male	Missouri
Nancy Northcutt	Age 9	Female	Missouri
Sarah Northcutt	Age 7	Female	Missouri
Samuel Northcutt	Age 5	Male	Missouri
George Northcutt	Age 3	Male	Missouri
Jenny Northcutt	Age 2	Female	Missouri
John Northcutt	Age 1	Male	Missouri
Eliza Northcutt	Age 4/12	Female	Missouri
Harvey Summers	Age 9/12	Male	Missouri
John Smith	Age 63	Male	France	Laborer

Comment: One cannot help but feel overwhelmed by this record -- a tribute to the solidarity of the family and a testimonial to the faithfulness and devotion of the parents. At 35 years of age, having nine children of their own, John and Eliza Northcutt are caring for an infant nine months of age and an elderly laborer, who apparently helps with the farm work, in addition to their own large family which includes an infant of four months.

1870 Washington County, Missouri, Johnson Township, Post Office: Osage, Missouri, Dwlg/Fam: #59/59, pages. 8, 9, enumerated 13 August 1870:

John Northcut	Age 53	Male	Kentucky	Farmer $900/1300
Emily Northcut	Age 53	Female	Virginia	Keeping house
Samuel Northcut	Age 19	Male	Missouri

George Northcut	Age 17	Male	Missouri

John Northcut	Age 13	Male	Missouri
Catherine Northcut	Age 11	Female	Missouri
Austin Northcut	Age 9	Male	Missouri
Susan Northcut	Age 9	Female	Missouri
Susan Smith	Age 14	Female	Missouri
Elizabeth Smith	Age 10	Female	Missouri

Comment: Eliza died some time following the birth of her twins, Austin and Susan, and before the 1870 census, where Emily is enumerated as John's wife.

John Northcutt's age would have been 45. Mrs. Emily Smith, John's second wife, is apparently unfamiliar with the birth dates of the Northcut family. Her new responsibilities would have been complicated by recent crises in her own life. Her first husband, Benjamin F. Smith, born in Kentucky in 1813, died in 1860 and was buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery, at Potosi, county seat of Washington County, Missouri. The following census records tell much of the family's story.

1850 Washington County, Missouri, Liberty Township, Dwlg/Fam #732/732, page 141(281), enumerated 9 October 1850:

Benjamin Smith	Age 37	Male	b. Kentucky	Blacksmith Personal: $200
Emily Smith	Age 33	Female	Virginia
William S. Smith	Age 16	Male	Kentucky
George W. Smith	Age 11	Male	Missouri
Mary C. Smith	Age 7	Female	Missouri
Frances E. Smith	Age 5	Female	Missouri
Erasmus B. Smith	Age 3	Male	Missouri
Alice G. Smith	Age 2	Female	Missouri
Silas Harris	Age 21	Male	Missouri

1860 Washington County, Missouri, Johnson Township, Post Office: Rock Spring, Dwlg/Fam: 854/844, page 126(459), enumerated 25 July 1860:

Benj. F. Smith	Age 47	Male	b. Kentucky	Farmer $7000/4000
Emily Smith	Age 42	Female	Virginia
Benj. Smith	Age 13	Male	Missouri	Attended school
Alice Smith	Age 11	Female	Missouri	Attended school

James Smith	Age 7	Male	Missouri	Attended school
Sarah Smith	Age 6	Female	Missouri	Attended school

Emory Johnson	Age 20	Male	Virginia	Laborer
Hugh Douglas	Age 17	Male	Missouri	Laborer
John O'Riley	Age 35	Male	Ireland
James Hogan	Age 27	Male	Missouri

Emily and her first husband were parents of eleven children. When she married John Northcutt is a matter of speculation, since no record of the marriage has been found. By 1870, Eliza's two youngest children, Susan and Eliza, were 14 and 10 years, respectively.

Marriages have been located for some of the older children in the Smith family, one of whom is (Emily) Jane Smith, age 9 in the 1860 census, who married John Northcutt's second child (first son) William Gideon Northcutt on the 8th day of December 1864. Emily (Mrs. Smith) Northcutt died before enumeration of the 1880 census, which follows.

1880 Washington County, Missouri, Johnson Township, S.D.10, E.D. 136, # 9/9, page 1, enumerated 2 June 1880:

John Northcut		Age 58	Male	Missouri	Farmer
John Northcut, Jr.	Son	Age 20	Male	Missouri	Works on farm
Susan Northcut	Dau	Age 17	Female	Missouri	Keeping house

John Northcut's parents were both born in Kentucky. By 1880 he was a widower.

In the Probate Court records of Washington County, Missouri, is filed the following:

Application for Letters of Administration in the Matter of the Estate of John Northcutt, Washington County, Missouri; John Northcutt, Jr., Applicant, dated 2 January 1884:

v. George W. Northcutt

George W. Northcutt was perhaps five or six years old when his parents moved their family to Missouri from Green County, Kentucky, in the early 1830's. Only little Sarah appears to have been younger than George when the family left their old Kentucky home. Whether they traveled overland or by water, how long the journey, and what perils they faced along the way are not known. The 1840 census listing of the family has not been located, but Elizabeth's marriage in March of 1840 in Franklin County, Missouri, is evidence of their arrival by that date.

In 1850 the census of Washington County, Missouri, lists George Northcut (23), and his wife Susan (Jackson) Northcut (18), together with George's mother Nancy (Sally) Northcut (44), and George's two younger sisters, Eliza (17) and Martha (12), both born in Missouri, [Dwelling 932], just four dwellings from John Northcutt (26) born in Kentucky, his wife Eliza (24), born in Missouri, and their four small children [Dwelling 925].

Thomas B. Stovall (44) and Judith (40), his wife, both born in Kentucky, with their family of nine children were neighbors [Dwelling 934], as were also William Hulsey (39), born in Georgia, and his wife Elizabeth (Horine) Hulsey (35), born in Missouri, with their family of seven children [Dwelling 924]. David Baker (45), born in Kentucky, and his wife Catherine (Capler/Kepler) Baker (45), born in Missouri, were listed at Dwelling 925.

Susan (Jackson) Northcut's grandfather William Jackson (60), and his second wife Mahala Hamilton Garrett Jackson (48), both born in Kentucky, lived nearby, [Dwelling 926], their family including one of Mahala's daughters from her first marriage: Sally Garrett (17), born in Kentucky; and six of their own children: Jasper Allen (14), Thomas (10), twins Lucinda and Richard (7), Lafayette (6), and Visey (spelled 'Bisay' in the listing) (4), all born in Missouri.

Thomas G. Yarbrough (56), of South Carolina, and his wife Mahala (Brown) Yarbrough (40), of Tennessee, are enumerated at Dwelling 931; their eight children included Margaret A. (18), who married David Baker, Jr.; Daniel J., who married Mary Louise Sonsocie; Martha (14), who married Charles L. Gough; Gilson (11), who married Martha Elvina Sonsocie; Nancy Elizabeth (8), who married Wm. F. Grier; Owen (6), who married Alice Sancocie; Thomas G. (4), who married Melzina Sansouci; and John W. (1), who married Mary Huttinger.

While establishing homes in a forested wilderness, outnumbered by Indians, and where daily survival required arduous labor fraught with unexpected hazards, these early settlers were united by bonds of family, relatives, and friends and sustained by faith and hope for a better life. They helped and defended one another in times of trouble and sickness; worked and worshiped together; shared one another's joys in times of health and plenty and one another's grief in times of misfortune and loss of loved ones. Their children married, usually within the circle of friends with whom they grew up; and many stayed in Washington County to build homes, churches, and schools, and to raise families of their own who would become honest, patriotic and valued citizens.

By July of 1860 George Northcut was 35, owned real estate valued at $300 and personal property of like value. He and Susan had five children: Melissa (); Nancy (7); William Smith (6); Mary Ann (4); and John Wesley (2). Susan would give birth to Samuel Philip that September. They had carved out of the wilderness a family home on beautiful Indian Creek, tributary to the Meramec River, cleared and cultivated their land. Game and fish supplemented their diet of grain, vegetables and fruit, and a spring house kept their perishables cool in the heat and humidity of Missouri summers.

The following spring, a war between the United States and the several southern States that had passed ordinances of secession appeared inevitable. While the people of Washington County were not in favor of secession, neither were they willing to take up arms against their Southern brethren. Before a company could be formed to enforce armed neutrality, a small battalion of Federal soldiers from St. Louis took possession of Potosi, the county seat of Washington County, and arrested a number of citizens who were believed to be sympathetic to the Southern cause. These citizens were taken to St. Louis and held for a time as prisoners of war, which action effectually ended any further attempt to secure neutrality in Washington County.

Men from Washington and surrounding counties began to join various military organizations: some in support of the Confederacy, some in support of the United States, and some in support of the State's Home Guard.

George Northcut enlisted in the Thirty-first Regiment, Missouri Volunteer Infantry, of the United States of America, August 14, 1862. Melissa was eleven, Nancy, nine; William S., eight; Mary Ann, six; John Wesley, four; and Samuel Philip, not yet two.

Dora Northcutt Kimberlin, granddaughter of George and Susan Northcutt, recounted for her daughter Ethel Kimberlin Shaffer, stories she heard from the lips of her mother, Mary Celia Josephine Baldridge Northcutt, who was five years of age when she went with her family to Pilot Knob, Missouri, the mustering-in site for the 31st Regiment.

Susan Jackson Northcut (30) and Mary Ann Bryan Baldridge (33) whose husband Darius Baldridge had also enlisted in the 31st, loaded supplies sufficient for two weeks into a wagon and, taking their young children with them, drove a team of horses from their homes on Indian Creek, Washington County, to Pilot Knob, now in Iron County, a distance of over forty miles; through woods and across creeks where roads were at best rough wagon trails. There they cared for their children, cooked meals over campfires for their husbands and families, and for two weeks created memories which must last a lifetime, for they would not be together again in mortality.

After they returned to their homes, Susan Northcut and Mary Ann Baldridge resumed necessary routines for maintaining their families. Their children helped with the farm and shared moments of fun and laughter as they fished the streams and weeded gardens. It seems appropriate that the relationship between the youngest children of the two families, Samuel Phillip Northcutt and Mary Celia Josephine Baldridge, would ripen into mature love and that they would one day marry, thereby uniting the two families forever.

George married (1) Susan JACKSON, daughter of Phillip JACKSON and BAKER on 26 Jan 1850 in Richwoods, Washington, Missouri. Susan was born 15 Nov 1831 in Missouri. She died 4 Jul 1898 in Hulsey, Washington, Missouri.

Military Service Branch (NNMS), National Archives and Records Administration, Washington, DC 20488; File Designation: George Northcutt, WC 924-354: "Geo. Northcut, born in Green Co., in the state of Kentucky, age 39 years, and by occupation a farmer" enlisted as a soldier in the Volunteer Service of the United States of America, for the period of three years, unless sooner discharged by proper authority, in the county of Washington, state of Missouri. Sworn and subscribed to at St. Louis, MO., 14 day of August 1862, before Lt. Wm H. Barlow, QM act adj't, 31st MO Vol. Examining Surgeon Jno. B. Bell certified "the above named Recruit" to be free from all bodily defects and mental infirmity; and Recruiting Officer Lieut. S.R. Macla___. stated, "This soldier has hazel eyes, black hair, dark complexion, is 5 feet 7 inches high."

!Family Note: Aunt Dora Northcutt Kimberlin recounted to her daughter Ethel Kimberlin Shaffer the stories she heard from her mother, Mary Celia Josephine (Baldridge) Northcut, the tradition told her by grandmother Susan (Jackson) Northcutt, widow of George W. Northcutt, of the two weeks the families of George W. Northcutt and Darius Baldridge spent together with their fathers at the mustering-in site of Pilot Knob, Missouri, prior to the time Company B, 31st Infantry, Missouri Volunteers were taken to St. Louis, Missouri, where they boarded vessels moving them south toward Vicksburg to make an assault on that fortified stronghold of the Confederacy, whereby the South controlled movement of troops and shipment of goods on that great national waterway.

The two wives and their children traveled by wagon from their homes on Indian Creek, Washington County, Missouri, to Pilot Knob (now in Iron County, Missouri) and cooked over campfires, sharing these last precious moments together with their husbands and fathers.

After returning home they continued to live in the same vicinity, and it seems appropriate that the youngest of both families, Samuel Phillip Northcutt and Mary Celia Josephine Baldridge, both approximately two years of age when their fathers left for the War, should fall in love and marry, thereby uniting the two families forever.

!COMMENT: Re: parents of George C. and Eliza Baker:

Letter, Ethel Kimberlin Shaffer, August 1990, to Clifford Noakes:

"Yes, Dollie Baker -- sister of George -- married James Baldridge (Grandma Northcutt's brother), and they had 3 children, and divorced. I loved Great Uncle Jim. He was a very quiet, good man. He never married again and died about 1924.

"The kinship [of George Baker to the Northcutt's] was through his mother. He had a half-brother named Patrick Casey, which indicates two husbands. Casey was older than George."

Note: Husband and wife have been married 30 years.

Comment: Peter Wise was guardian of Jessie Douglas and gave his consent for her marriage to William Arthur Miller, son of Andrew and Mary Ann Northcutt Miller, 24 March 1906, since she was not yet 18 years of age. Eugene Douglas, adopted son of William Thomas Wise, is possibly Jessie's older brother.

1910 Washington County, Missouri, Johnson Township, S.D. 11, E.D. 148, #55/58, Page No. 3B, enumerated 22 April 1910:

PETER WISE		62 M	MO KY KY
ELIZABETH WISE	Wife	79 F	KY KY KY	Ch: 3/1

Note: Husband has been married once; wife thrice, this marriage for a duration of 40 years. Elizabeth's age was listed as 20 in 1850, so it would appear that her given age of 79 years is accurate.

Since Richard Marshal (42) and his wife Martha (39) are enumerated in the 1910 census [Dwelling/Family #19/22], it would appear that William Wise and an unknown child are the two children of Elizabeth who died before 1910.

Enumerated at	50/50: Allen (Jasper) Jackson,	35, b Missouri
	52/52: Thomas Jackson,	31, b Kentucky.

Comment: Allen Jasper Jackson and Thomas Jackson were half brothers of Elizabeth Garrett, their mother being Mahala Hamilton Garrett who married William P. Jackson in 1835. Elizabeth was a child of Mahala's first marriage. Elizabeth states in 1910 that she was married three times. Aunt Cora (Witt) Northcutt, great-granddaughter of Mahala Hamilton Garrett who married William P. Jackson in 1835, stated in 1980 (at 84 years) that she knew Elizabeth Garrett had married a Marshall; but she did not remember his given name.

Peter and Elizabeth had the following children:

62 M i. William A. WISE was born 1873 in p Washington Co., Missouri. He died before 1900 in p Washington Co., Missouri and was buried before 1900 in p Washington Co., Missouri.

!Bir-Mar-Dea: William A. Wise, 7, b Missouri, is enumerated only in the 1800 census of Washington County, Missouri; Dwlg/Fam: 14/14; 2 & 3 June 1880, p 2.

By 1900, his mother Elizabeth Wise indicates that of her three children, only one is living. Jessica, age 8, b Missouri, is enumerated as a daughter in the Wise household in 1900.

DEA-BUR: No death or burial record has been located for Peter; however, his brother William Thomas Wise, died 4 January 1946 and is interred in the Smith Cemetery, Washington Co., Missouri, together with his wife, Visey (Jackson) Wise, who died 3 April 1931. Visey (Jackson) Wise and Elizabeth (Garrett) Wise were half sisters, both daughters of Mahala (Hamilton) Garrett Jackson who married Will P. Jackson 14 Jun 1835 in Washington County, Missouri.

+ 89 M i. John N. COMPTON was born 1865 and died 1927.
90 M ii. George W. COMPTON was born 1869 in p Liberty Twp., Washington Co., Missouri.

!COMMENTARY: George W. Compton was not enumerated with his parents in the census of 1870. He was either: 1) the third child and third son born to Peter H. and Nancy Jane (Northcutt) Compton, having been born after the enumeration of the 1870 census; or 2) he was inadvertently omitted in the 1870 census. His age and family position in the 1880 census would vindicate the latter assumption.
George Compton was witness to the marriage of John Compton, over 21, of Johnson Township, and Susie Baker, under 18, of Johnson Township, daughter of David N. and Ann Baker, 10 Oct 1886, by Rev. G.W. Lucas, Baptist Minister. See Marriage Records of Washington County, Missouri: Volume 1, page 195.

!OBITUARY:

AGED DENT COUNTY RESIDENT PASSES AWAY

The community was again saddened to hear of the passing of another of the aged residents of the county when George Northcutt, aged 72, a life-long Missourian, was gathered to his fathers on last Friday, January 1st. Mr. Northcutt had been in failing health for some time, and his passing was expected.

George Northcutt was born in Washington County, Missouri, on May 18, 1853, and lived there until about 23 years ago when he moved to Dent County. On February 3, 1874, he was united in marriage with Miss Rachel Jackson, and to this union w[ere] born fourteen children, nine of whom are still living. Besides his children, he leaves 42 grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Also he leaves one brother and five sisters.

In religion he was a member of the Church of Christ. In his going Salem loses an honored citizen, one whose word was as good as his bond, one who loved truth and right. His life stood for all that means good citizenship.

Funeral services were conducted from the home on Saturday at 2:30 p.m. by Elder Ira G. Williams, Pastor of the local Christian Church, and burial was made in Greenwood Cemetery.

!TRIBUTE:

To pay respect and honor to William S. Northcutt:

William S. Northcutt was the eldest son of George and Susan (Jackson) Northcutt. There were two sisters older than he: Melissa E. and Nancy Jane; then came Mary Ann, John W., and Samuel Phillip. He always saw after them all.

He was a good friend to everyone. He lived his spirituality every day. He never lost his temper or spoke unkindly of anyone. Everyone called him "Uncle Will."

We have made our family reunion the "Will Northcutt Reunion" in his honor.

He had some cousins that came to visit, and they called him "Cousin Will." They taught us children the old-fashioned way not to speak unless we were spoken to; so I could stay in the room and listen as long as I didn't try to talk. I have a lot of sweet memories of these visits.

He was a good teacher to the family. We used lots of herbs and teas; we always had Skelly bark tea in the winter for colds, and I guess it worked as we grew into good, stout people, and also very independent folk.

I am proud to have him for my grandfather. I just wish he could have lived longer so my children could have known him.

-- Dollie E. Baldridge Eaton, who is now in her eighties, is a daughter of Will Northcutt's daughter Clara Ellen who married Franklin Clarke Baldridge.

!TRIBUTE:

To the memory of William S. Northcutt:

I think the young people today are so fortunate in getting to know both sets of grandparents. I knew only one of my grandparents, my grandfather William S. Northcutt, my dear mother's father.

He was a small man and had a little goatee on his face. He would come into town and stay with us for awhile at times. I remember when my mother would take us to his house where he lived on Indian Creek; she would take us to the creek when she would do her washing with the old washboard and tub and lye soap that she had made. My, how we loved to play in that clear, bright creek!

My grandfather had a farm with three or four houses on it. My two uncles lived in two houses, and my "Aunt Dutch" lived in one.

My grandfather lived in a log house. He took care of paying the teacher. One of the teachers came to our family reunion some years back and told us that you could always count on Uncle Will Northcutt. When he said he would do anything, he would always do it. He always paid the teacher on time.

When my grandfather passed away, they called my mother to come. I was the smallest of her ten children, so I went everywhere with her. I was five years old. When they took my grandfather to the church, they took him on a wagon. This was about 1924, and there were very few cars in those days. I remember my mother crying, so I cried also. I was so young I didn't know what was going on; this was the first time I was ever at a funeral.

I remember them putting money on his eyes when he passed away. I learned later than it was to keep his eyes closed.

Time goes on, and time has a way of getting away from us. We are born into this world not knowing what will take place. Now that I am the only one left of ten children, I thank God for my family and all that we meant to one another.

"George O. Northcutt" is not included in Hulsey Cemetery records. Is it possible that George O. is "Oscar"? And that the infant son should be included after Lulu in the family structure? Since compiler does not have records to resolve the matter, "Infant son" has been included in this family group record, explaining why there are 18 children rather than the traditional 17.

!MINISTRY: Samuel Phillip Northcutt was ordained to the work of the Ministry by Reverends W.C. Elvoid, Chairman, and Newton Eoff, Thursday, August 7, 1915, at the New Hope Baptist Church, Johnson Twp., Washington Co., Missouri. Deacons: C.A. Taylor, J.E. Thurman, C.H. Bryant, A.J. Missey, and A. Miller assisted.

Reverend Northcutt also served as a Justice of the Peace in Johnson Twp., Washington County, Missouri, for many years. He was known affectionately as 'Preacher' by his family and associates, his wife being known as "Aunt Polly".

Reverend S.P. Northcutt was a "walking preacher of the Ozarks", walking over the hills from one church to another wherever there was a need: preaching the gospel, baptizing converts, performing marriage ceremonies, and preaching funerals. It is remembered that he turned over to the presiding presbytery of the sometimes isolated congregations donations collected during revivals to be used where it was most needed, whether paint for the church, put new shingles on the roof, or buy an organ for worship services.

!A FAMILY REUNION: The S.P. Northcutt family enjoyed a reunion last Sunday, July 31, (about 1928) with a picnic dinner and fish-fry on Indian Creek at the old B.E. Kimberlin farm. Those present were: S.P. Northcutt and wife, A.O. Northcutt and family; Charles Noakes and family, all of Algire, Mo.; H.B. Northcutt and family of Toledo, Ohio; W.T. Northcutt and wife of Richwoods, B.E. Kimberlin and wife of Sullivan Route 4; Elmer Shaffer and family; and Philip and Bennie Harmon of Sullivan.

There were six of the seven living Northcutt children, and twenty grandchildren and one great-grandchild at the reunion. --Sullivan News

Mary Celia Josephine ("Aunt Polly") Baldridge Northcutt was my father's (Clifford William Noakes) maternal grandmother. They loved each other dearly. She smoked a corncob pipe and was very superstitious, even keeping a silver dollar in her tea kettle to keep the witches away. Dad told me once that if he had known as a young boy the value of that dollar, his Grandma would have had a hard time keeping a silver dollar in her tea-kettle and a dollar in those days was a lot of money.

One day he caught a river turtle and excitedly headed to her house so she could turn it into one of his favorite dishes...turtle soup. She had seen him coming and went out on the porch where she waved to him. He smiled at her holding up his bounty. Suddenly, his beloved Grandma crumpled into a heap before his very eyes. She had suffered a stroke and died a few days later. In a very touching moment, my mother told me that for years he had been heartbroken believing in his little boy heart he was somehow responsible for her death.

Dearest mother, you have left us--
Left the home you loved so well.
But some day we hope to meet you
And together we shall dwell.
How we miss your welcome footsteps;
How we miss your dear, sweet face!
You are gone, but not forgotten--
There'll always be a vacant place.

Sadly missed by husband and children.

!Obituary:

SAMUEL PHILLIP NORTHCUTT was born in Washington County, Missouri, September 4, 1860, being the son of George and Susan Jackson Northcutt, and departed this life at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Noakes, in Sullivan, Mo., December 26, 1942 at the age of 82 years, 3 months, 22 days. He was united in marriage to Mary Celia Baldridge. To this union eight children were born. Of these one daughter Maggie Myrtle died in infancy and one Mrs. Garra Harmon preceded him in death a few months. His wife departed from this life about eleven years ago.

About 35 years ago he professed faith in Christ and united with the Baptist Church. Shortly afterwards, feeling the Call to proclaim God's message to a lost world, he began preaching and was soon ordained to the ministry and carried on the work of a pioneer Baptist preacher throughout a large part of Washington County and parts of Franklin County. He carried on his ministry for his Master under trying conditions and the greater part of compensation received was the satisfaction of knowing he was being true to the responsibility resting on him as a minister and in being faithful to the commands of his Lord and Savior in carrying on his work. Many souls were led to an acceptance of Christ through his ministry. He was a staunch, dependable Citizen, practicing as the Supreme Principal of his life, The Golden Rule.

He had been in failing health for several years and for several months had been unable to leave his room, but throughout it all he remained a patient sufferer, ever submissive to the portion fallen to him, being reconciled by the knowledge that the Supreme Ruler doeth all things well.

Ever since the departure of his wife eleven years ago he had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Minnie Noakes, who had ministered untiringly to him as he had in his labors ministered unto others.

He leaves surviving him three daughters and three sons: Namely: Mrs.Dora Kimberlin, Mary Marshall and Minnie Noakes, Archie, Benjamin and William Northcutt, 39 grand-children, 31 great-grand-children, many others relatives and a host of friends. In him there passes from our presence one of the oldest and best known citizens of our community.

Funeral services were held at the Temple Baptist church, Monday, December 28, 1942. Owing to weather and road conditions interment will not be made until Saturday, January 2, at Bryant (New Hope) Cemetery.

!DEA-BUR: Personal knowledge of Minnie Blanche Noakes, (child No. 8), in 1947.
Death date is not recorded on tombstone in the New Hope (Bryant) Cemetery, Washington County, Missouri, where Samuel Phillip Northcutt and his wife, Mary Celia Josephine (Baldridge) Northcutt, rest side by side.

42. Eliza FLANAGIN was born 1851 in Prob Richwoods T, Washington Co., Missouri.

!Bir-Mar-Dea: Eliza, 9, b Missouri, is first enumerated in the 1860 census of Richwoods Twp., Washington Co., Missouri, in the household of her parents, Thomas and Sarah (Northcut) "Flanagan"; Dwlg/Fam: 702/698; P.O.: Richwoods, Missouri; 19 July 1860; p 105.

In the 1870 census of the same locality, Eliza, 18, is living at home with her parents, Thomas and Sarah (Northcut) "Flanigin"; Dwlg/Fam: 69/69; P.O.: Caledonia; 5 August 1870, p 11.

In 1880, Eliza, 26, is enumerated in the household of her parents, Thomas and Sarah (Northcut) "Flanagan"; Dwlg/Fam: 170/174; Richwoods Twp., Washington Co., Missouri; 12 June 1880; p 19.

In the 1900 census of Richwoods Twp., Washington Co., Missouri, "Flanagan", b Aug 1851, 48, b Missouri, father: b Ireland; mother: b Missouri, is enumerated as the wife of Joseph Stager, b Feb 1838, 62, Germany; immigrated 1880 (20 years ago); married 27 years (?). She is the mother of two children, two of whom are living 6 June 1880, date of census; both are daughters and are at home with their parents: Josephine, b August 1877, Missouri; and Sadie, b January 1886, Missouri. In the same dwelling "Bee" Flanagan, b Apr 1865, Missouri, is listed as sister-in-law; father b Ireland; mother b Missouri; occupation: dressmaker.

An apparent discrepancy exists in the 1900 record. Joseph Stager could not have been married to "Flanagan" for 27 years if his immigration date is correct. Eliza was enumerated in the household of their parents in 1880.

In 1910, Dwelling/Family 113/113, Joseph "Stacker", Head of household, male, white, is 72 years of age. He indicates he has been married twice, the second marriage for nineteen years. He and his parents were born in Germany. He states the year of his immigration to the United States was 1859. The response to whether naturalized or alien is "NA": (Not Applicable). He is a farmer by occupation and works for himself. He can read and write and speak English. He rents his farm; schedule is # 89. His wife is "Liza", female/white, 58 years of age; married once for nineteen years. Whereas "Flanagan" indicated in 1900 that she was the mother of two children, both living, she now states she is the mother of one living child. Her birthplace is given as Missouri, her father having been born in Ireland and her mother in Missouri. She can read and write. Eliza's child would be Sadie of the 1900 Census; Josephine, the child of Mr. Stager's first marriage.

Eliza married (1) Joseph STAGER. Joseph was born Feb 1838 in Germany.

They had the following children:

207 F i. Josephine STAGER was born Aug 1877 in Missouri.

Bir-Mar-Dea: Josephine, daughter of Joseph and "Flanagan" Stager, is enumerated in the 1900 census of Richwoods Twp., Washington Co., Missouri at Dwelling/Family: 89/89. Supervisor's District 10; Enumeration District 139; 6 Jun 1880.

208 F ii. Sadie STAGER was born Jan 1886 in Missouri.

!Bir-Mar-Dea: Sadie Stager is enumerated in the 1900 census of Richwoods Twp., Washington Co., Missouri; Dwelling/Family: 89/89. Her age is given as 14. Supervisor's District: 10; Enumeration District: 139. Date of enumeration: 6 Jun 1880.

46. Ellen FLANAGIN was born 26 Mar 1860 in Richwoods Twp, Washington Co., Missouri.

Ellen Flanagan, born 26 Mar 1860; baptized 8 Jul 1860;
Parents: Thos Flanagan and Anna Northcutt. Sponsors: Pat and Margaret Burns.

In the 1860 census of Richwoods Twp., Washington Co., Missouri, the name of the seventh child has been written over. It appears to be Allen or Ellen, 3 months. Sex indicated is male. Dwlg/Fam: 702/698; P.O.: Richwoods, Missouri; 19 July 1860; p 105.

In the 1870 census of the same locality, "Ellen", 9, b Missouri, is at home with her parents Thomas and Sarah (Northcut) "Flanigin", Dwlg/Fam: 69/69; P.O.: Caledonia, Missouri; 5 August 1870; p 11.

In the 1880 census of the same locality, Ellen, 17, is at home with her parents, Thomas and Sarah "Flanagan"; Dwlg/Fam: 170/174; 12 June 1880, p 19.

Ellen married (1) John NOEL, son of Noah NOWELL and Rachel on 26 May 1887 in Richwoods Twp., Washington Co., Missouri. John was born Mar 1862 in Richwoods Twp., Washington Co., Missouri.

!Biography:

CLEMENTINE HARMON married William Northcutt [son of George W. and Rachel (Jackson) Northcutt] and they had one daughter: Bell Northcutt (Cash).

--A History of Sullivan, Missouri, and the Bank of Sullivan, p. 11.

"Viola" Harmon is enumerated in the household of her parents, Albert and Ida (Northcutt) Harmon, in the 1900 Census of Franklin Co., Missouri, Meramec Township, 11 June 1900. Her age is 11 months, her birth date having been given as July 1899.

In the 1910 census of Franklin Co., Missouri, Meramec Township,"Viola B." Harmon is enumerated in the household of her grandparents, William C. and Susan (Crow) Harmon, relationship listed as "daughter", her age as 10 years.

In the recently published work, "A History of Sullivan, Missouri, and the Bank of Sullivan", Viola "Bell"'s parents are listed as William and Clementine (Harmon) Northcutt. Clementine is the sister of Albert Harmon, who is Viola B. Harmon's father.

Mrs. Irene (Northcutt) Hamilton, of Chandler, Texas, is a granddaughter of George and Rachel (Jackson) Northcutt, who were Ida B. [Northcutt] Harmon's parents. She has in her possession a picture of Clemma and 'Willie' Northcutt in their later years and knows they had no children. She writes,

"I believe [Viola B.] was Clemmie's niece, daughter of her brother [Albert], who married Ida Northcutt. I think Ida died while she was young, and [that] she lived with relatives before she married and died soon after [she was married]."

Records appear to support Mrs. Hamilton's belief, which is based on her personal knowledge of the family:

1) Census records consistently show William and Clemma (Harmon) Northcutt without children.

2) 1910 Census shows Viola as a daughter of Clemma's parents, William C. and Susan (Crow) Harmon, which would appear to substantiate Mrs. Hamilton's belief that Viola "Bell"'s mother died shortly after her marriage. Apparently, Aunt Clemma and grand-parents William C. and Susan (Crow) Harmon cared for Viola B. after the death of her mother.

3) In 1910 William Harmon was 63 years of age and Susan (Crow) Harmon was 58, both well past normal child-bearing years.

110. Austin NORTHCUTT was born 30 Oct 1893 in Washington Co., Missouri. He died 8 Mar 1970 in St. Louis, St. Louis, Missouri and was buried Mar 1970.

!Biography of her father, Austin Northcutt, by Irene Northcutt Hamilton:

"Although his moral standards were so high that it was hard to please him, he was usually a smiling, friendly, ambitious person. He worked for the railroad as did several of his brothers. At the time of his first marriage, he was called an "engine hostler". Later he was called a "flagman". As an engine approached, he reached for a support to pull himself up, but on one occasion it was not soon enough for his arm to clear the track; it was amputated above the elbow. The rest of his life he tried to prove he could do as much with one arm as could be done with two. He made a garden in a vacant lot; he worked as custodian of a large church, became a Watkins Products salesman. He installed furnace pipes for construction companies. He was in church when he suffered a heart attack and was not expected to live. While recovering, he gave up the furnace installation, bought an acre of land and built a one-room house, driving his own nails. He made a garden, raised chickens, and sold eggs.

When he was warned that this was too strenuous for him, he sold the farm; went to small towns to hold cottage meetings, raised money, and built churches. Whenever a church began doing well, he moved on and started another. After a short stay in an "old folks' home", he started another mission; and died of pancreatic cancer thirty years after his nearly fatal heart attack. He never made a lot of money, but he will always be remembered as a man who had pride in himself and tried to become what God wanted him to be. He never drank, smoked, cursed, or told lies; but he was not a saint . . . he chewed tobacco . . . and loved to tease.

!Biography of James Albert Northcutt, Gunner First Class, U.S.S. Houston; by Irene Northcutt Hamilton:

Bert joined the U.S. Navy at 17, and sent all his pay to a bank for his father to use in buying a chicken farm. He re-enlisted for a second term in the summer of 1941 and was at Manila Bay when the Japanese Bombed Pearl Harbor where the U.S.S. Houston was at anchor. A history of his ship follows:

"Houston, U.S.S. Northhampton-class heavy cruiser, commissioned in 1930. When the Pacific war broke out, she was the flagship of Adm. Thomas Hart's U.S. Asiatic Fleet. During the early weeks of 1942 she took part in some of the engagements leading up to the battle of the Java Sea, in which she and the Australian light cruiser Perth were the only surviving Allied ships. In the evening of February 28, the two cruisers attacked Japanese invasion shipping at Banten Bay, Java; in the action that followed, both were sent to the bottom. Houston's service earned her a Presidential Unit Citation." --Simon-Schuster Encyclopedia of World War II.

Bert was listed as missing for over five years. When prisoners from his ship were released after Hiroshima, the Chaplain said he saw GM1/c Northcutt sink. The Lord he loved spared him those years in captivity in a Japanese prison; and his pay during those years was sent to the joint bank account for his father and himself.

!OBITUARY:

Maude M. Scott was often heard referring to herself as the last leaf of the family of John Northcutt and Mattie Ellen Gough Northcutt. "Grama", as she was known to her family and friends, was born in Washington county, Missouri, on March 7, 1892, and departed this life at the home of her daughter in Sullivan, at the age of 92 years, 10 months and 21 days. She received her education at Cavernville School and Potosi teacher training and began teaching in Washington County at the age of 18 years, often walking several miles or riding horseback.

She was united in marriage to George Thomas Scott in 1917, and they were blessed with six children: George Scott; Vernon and wife Virginia; John and wife Jane; Gerry Harmon and husband Ray; all of Sullivan -- Bertha Rinehart and husband Robert, of Glencoe; and Eugene and wife Marie, of Granite City, Illinois; She is also survived by a sister-in-law Ruth Northcutt, of Sullivan, 21 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband Tom; a grandchild Paula Gail Scott; three brothers, John; Eual; and McKinley; and four sisters, Isabelle Clark; Mae Cole; Josie Politte; and Hilda Lea.

She was baptized at an early age in Cavernville Baptist Church and later united with Maple Grove Baptist Church, where she remained a faithful active member until the Church disbanded.

During World War II she returned to teaching and at the age of 55 years, having never been very far from home, went to Ovando, Montana, to be near her sister Hilda Lea and teach at the Salmon Creek School where she lived in an apartment joining the school, called a teacherage. From that experience she wrote many interesting articles and became an avid traveler, visiting most of the western states.

She returned to the farm home on Indian Creek where she remained, keeping active with garden and animals until 1976, when she moved to Sullivan to live with her daughter.

A kind and loving mother, mother-in-law, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister-in-law, aunt and friend, she will be sadly missed and lovingly remembered by her family and friends.

Funeral services were held Thursday, January 31 at Hassebrock's Memorial Chapel in Sullivan with Rev. L.H. Owens and Rev. William Norris officiating. Interment was in the Reynolds Cemetery, Sullivan, Missouri

Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Hassebrock's in Sullivan.

!Biography:

The Troutt family of America are descended from two of three brothers who came to escape religious persecution in Germany and settled in the Frankfort-on-Main settlement in Pennsylvania. There were Nathaniel, who remained in Pennsylvania; Daniel, who removed to Frederick County, Virginia; and Jeremiah, who died unmarried. He was a chaplain in the American Army during the Revolution. The name was originally spelled "Traut", and one still finds various ways of spelling throughout the nation.

William Troutt, born June 27, 1830 in Tennessee, early removed across the line into Todd County, Kentucky. On February 16, 1854 he married Marilda F. Puckett, born in 1836 in Virginia, but reared in Kentucky. In 1856 they came to Washington County where they settled an eighty-six acre farm. Here they lived the rest of their days. He helped round up the last of the Indians when the government ordered them west. He was highly respected throughout the county. He was an ardent Baptist and was clerk of the church for fifteen years. He died in 1914; she died in 1915.

"For many years William Troutt ran a general store and blacksmith shop at his home, which was located on the present site of the settling pond of St. Joseph's Lead Company's Indian Creek mine. In his home was established the Troutt Post Office, of which he was postmaster. His grandson, John D. Smith, wrote: 'In those days when time passed much slower than today, there was time to have all day for making cider, drying apples, making hominy, making homemade soap with lye from the old ash hopper. Yes, there was always time to visit with the neighbors while waiting for the mail, which came sometimes by horseback, sometimes by buggy. At that time (1908) the mail man was Lane Parmeley, who stayed all night when the creeks were up. Today this is buried under the slime pond of the Indian Creek mine along with many, many memories'" -- Independent Journal (Potosi) March 15, 1962.

William and Effie had the following children:

Opal Michael Trout and Pearl Mae Trout were twins. Indecision regarding Michael's first given name exists within the family, some preferring Oval to Opal; it would appear, however, that these two choice gifts from Heaven were named after two exquisite gems: Opal and Pearl. "Mike" was his familiar family name.

He was kicked by a horse when he was a little boy, and a metal plate was surgically implanted to restore the damaged bony structure. He never fully recovered and died, unmarried, when only 24 years of age.

One of his choice pastimes was to pick a guitar with his brothers Reuben and David.

!Biography:

Bessie Lee Northcutt was born to William and Amanda [Hays] Northcutt on January 13, 1884, in a log cabin on Big Indian Creek several miles from Sullivan, Missouri. Her father and mother owned the farm which he planted, plowed, and worked to make a living for his family of eight children.

The only way to cook a meal was on the fireplace. To help them get by, they raised a large garden; and Bessie's mother canned much of it during the late summer months. The fruits or vegetables were picked, washed, and sliced if needed, then put into tin cans. The cans, which were used for canning summer after summer, were sealed by putting them in a large iron kettle over a fire in the backyard. In addition to canning, Bessie's mother dried fruits, such as apples and peaches, to add variety to their meals during the long winter months.

Ashes from the fireplace were boiled, and after they settled to the bottom of the pot, Bessie's mother would pour off the lye water and make hominy in the late fall. This is one of the chores that Bessie helped her mother with.

Fish which Bessie's dad caught out of Big Indian Creek were fried as long as their lard lasted, and baked when it was gone.

The family raised cattle, hogs, and chickens for their own use. Horses were kept on the farm for plowing and pulling the wagon.

Bessie's father and older brother took wheat to the mill in Sullivan when they needed flour. They left the house at first light in the morning and didn't return home until well after dark. After the sun went down, they hung lanterns on the front and back of the wagon to keep the wolves from attacking the horses. Bessie said the wolves would gather in packs and howl for long periods of time almost every night; she recalled that it was a very lonesome sound and [she] didn't like to hear them.

All of the children went to the same one-room school where all eight grades were taught. It was called the Hulsey School and was about two miles from the farm. Every day the children walked to and from the school, which was on the other side of Big Indian Creek. During heavy rains, when the creek flooded, Bessie's dad would ferry the children across the creek in his boat.

Bessie attended the Baptist church every Sunday. She loved to be with the young people and sing with them..

In 1895, when William and Amanda Northcutt were expecting their ninth child, birthing problems developed; and William went on horseback to bring a doctor for his wife and child. When he reached Big Indian Creek, it was a raging torrent, impossible to cross by any means.

Bessie's mother and baby both died that night. Effie, their oldest daughter, was 15 years old; Bessie was 10. Both girls had to quit school to care for the younger children. Bessie had always loved school, was a champion speller, and had received numerous awards, so we can be sure this was not an easy thing for her to do.

In 1905, when she was 21, Bessie met a gentleman named Joseph Hayes. During their courting Bessie and Joseph spent most of their time with Bessie's father, visiting with each other while he read his paper.

In November 1905, Bessie and Joseph were united in marriage at St. Stephen's Church, in Richwoods, Missouri. Joseph had built a new house on his farm for his bride; here they lived the remainder of their married lives.

Five children were born of this union: two boys and three girls; Albert was the oldest, then Agnes, Henry, Myrtle, and Katie.

Joe, as his friends and neighbors called him, worked his farm planting corn, wheat, and oats; and Bessie had a large garden with various kinds of fruits and vegetables which she would can in the fall much the same as her mother had done before her. She made numerous types of preserves, jellies, and jams; and sewed dresses for her daughters and shirts for her husband.

On the farm they had chickens for eggs; a cow for milk, butter and cream; and horses to pull the plow and wagon. They raised their own cattle, sheep and goats, and the children all went to the same one room school Bessie and her brothers and sisters had attended before them.

With a spring creek on the property, Bessie had a cool place to keep her milk and butter, and the children enjoyed its cool waters during the hot summer months.

In February 1939, at the young age of 35, Joseph Hayes took pneumonia and passed away shortly afterward. Bessie and her son Henry lived on the farm for two years, then Bessie went to live with her daughter Myrtle, and husband William Smith, in Union, Franklin County, Missouri.

In November, 1976, Bessie Lee (Northcutt) Hayes, weakened from pneumonia, passed away at St. Johns Mercy Hospital in Washington, Franklin County, Missouri. She had lived to be 92 years of age. Her body was laid to rest at the Catholic Cemetery in Union, Missouri.

The Northcutt Store at Hulsey

by

Sue Cooley

I have made an exception to my stated intention of writing about the general stores of Franklin County. The Northcutt store at Hulsey was actually in Washington county. However, older St. Clair residents recall the store, and branches of the Hulsey and Northcutt families now extend across Franklin County.

Born in 1783 in Chester County, South Carolina, Elijah Hulsey and his wife, Sarah Naomi (Choate) were pioneers in both Franklin and Washington counties. Before coming to Missouri, Elijah enlisted to serve in the War of 1812 at Hall County, Georgia. He advanced to the rank of major.

Major Elijah Hulsey and his wife were in Washington county by 1824, the year their seventh child was born. According to an old newspaper clipping, they once lived in the Duemler school district south of St. Clair. In later years, they moved to a place a mile or more east of Stanton and three miles southwest of Morrellton on the Meramec river.

Most of the Hulseys in our area have descended from Elijah and Sarah Hulsey. However, according to Family Treemaker software, both Elijah and Sarah are buried in Obion County, Tennessee.

Although I have not been able to verify exactly who the Hulsey post office was named for, I assume it was named for Elijah and/or his descendants.

Hulsey was sometimes referred to as Hulsey Mills, indicating there must have been a mill there at one time. The old store was located near Indian Creek, which was once a much larger stream and was likely capable of sustaining a mill. However, no one living has been able to confirm there was a mill at Hulsey.

The Hulsey post office was located off Highway A. The site can be reached by driving south on Highway K, making a left onto Highway A, then taking a driveway to the right. The store was about 200 yards down the road.

Several months ago, Vester Sohn told me that his mother used to ride sidesaddle in the winter to the John W. Northcutt store at Hulsey to buy groceries for her family.

Vester also recalled a blacksmith shop at Hulsey, operated by wagon builder, Tom Centers.

The children of Elijah and Sarah Naomi (Choate) Hulsey were Elijah Jr.; Margaret Ann; James; William Henry; Susan; John; and Francis W. Hulsey.

William "Henry" Hulsey was born February 11, 1811, in Miedgeville, Georgia. On May 2, 1833, Henry married Elizabeth "Betty" Horine, the daughter of Benjamin Horine and Catherine Shook. Betty was born February 10, 1815, and died August 6, 1890.

Henry Hulsey's grief for his deceased wife must have been unbearable because, on August 11, 1894, shortly after the fourth anniversary of his wife's death, Henry was found dead on her grave at New Hope Cemetery near Indian Creek in Washington county. The August 23, 1894 issue of the Franklin County Observer reported that it was believed he had taken poison.

Henry and Betty Hulsey had a large family. I don't have information on all of their descendants but, according to Family Treemaker software, their children were Charles Leroy, Benjamin Francis, James Milan, Harvey Augustus, Sarah Catherene, John Gano, Susan Elizabeth, Florence Ann, William Henry Jr., Alexandra Washington, Elijah Walls, and Frances Perlina Hulsey.

Charles Leroy Hulsey was born April 14, 1834, the son of William "Henry" and Elizabeth "Betty" (Horine) Hulsey. Charles married Eliza Jane Roderique, born July 24, 1833, the daughter of Simon (or Simeon) Roderique. Eliza Jane died December 30, 1875, at age 42. One Internet contact listed her name as "Mary Jane" instead of Eliza.

On April 15, 1844, Charles married again. His second bride was Elizabeth Hopkins, who died July 23, 1932.

The children of Charles Leroy Hulsey, some by each of the two wives, were Martha O. "Mattie," Susan E., Carroll White, Mary Jane, and Eliza Elizabeth "Betty."

Eliza Elizabeth "Betty" Hulsey was born February 16, 1866, in Washington county. She married John Wesley Northcutt, the proprietor of the Northcutt store at Hulsey, Missouri. John was the son of George Northcutt and his wife, Susan Jane (Jackson) Northcutt, Washington county pioneers.

John W. and Betty Northcutt had about 17 children, many of whom died at birth or in early childhood. Out of 17 births, only half survived to adulthood. The children were: Firman Desloge, Maud Myrtle, Rilla Belle, Freddie L., Carroll Earl, Hattie Jane, Oscar, Lula May, Edith, Susie, Willis, Marion Buris, Katie Agnes, George Oscar, Virgil, Charles, Minnie Frances, and two others, one designated as "infant Northcutt" and another as "daughter Northcutt."

Firman Desloge Northcutt was born February 22, 1883. He married Mary Hall and they had three children, but Firman died of blood poisoning at age 31, leaving Mary to raise the three young children alone.

Maud Myrtle Northcutt was born August 22, 1884. She married William Luther Hawk and died May 27, 1976, in Chadron, Nebraska.

Rilla Belle Northcutt was born September 24, 1885, at Hulsey. She married Edward W. Callahan on April 7, 1912. Edward and Rilla Callahan had three children: Carter, Jessie Lukin, and Virgil Callahan. Rilla died August 22, 1972, in Sullivan.

Carrick (or possibly Carroll) Earl Northcutt, born July 26, 1888, married Mary Catherine Pilkerton. He died April 14, 1909.

Hattie Jane Northcutt was born February 17, 1891. She first married Marion "Louis" Pilkerton, who died at age 28 after being kicked by a mule. Hattie was left alone to raise their only child, Gerthie Landing Brown, who now lives in St. Clair. After Louis' death, Hattie married a Merritt and had additional children.

Lula May Northcutt was born in July, 1892. On March 27, 1903, at age ten, she fell into the fireplace and burned to death.

Meredith Buris Northcutt, who was known as "Midge," was born June 3, 1899. He married Carrie Dilks and moved to Joplin, where he died on November 13, 1968.

Katie Agnes Northcutt was born May 26, 1901. She married Russell Claude Jackson on June 18, 1918. They had two children. After his death, she married Cornelius Schulte. Katie now lives at Sullivan, the only surviving child of John and Betty Northcutt.

Virgil Charles Northcutt was born May 27, 1905. His wife was Norma. Virgil died December 15, 1993.

Minnie Frances Northcutt was born May 18, 1909. She married Joseph "Joe" Robert Landing. Joe and Minnie had six or seven children. She died April 21, 1988, in Sullivan.

Betty (Hulsey) Northcutt died August 17, 1927. John, who was born May 8, 1857, died March 29, 1916, at age 58.

On a miserable winter day in 1916, the Northcutt store at Hulsey was visited by a large poverty-stricken family. After purchasing a sizable quantity of food, the family had no means of transporting themselves and the groceries to their home and intended to walk and carry their purchases.

Out of compassion, John Northcutt hitched up a wagon and took them home, suffering exposure in the process. He soon contracted pneumonia and died.

To clear up a potentially confusing point, there was a Northcutt post office in Washington county. The small store and post office at Northcutt was owned by Richard and Annie Wirt. Their daughter, Ruth, married Theodore Hulsey. Remember that John and Betty Northcutt had the Northcutt store at Hulsey.

Part II

As discussed in the Hulsey series, John Wesley Northcutt and his wife Elizabeth "Betty" (Hulsey) owned the general store and post office at Hulsey, south of St. Clair.

John W. Northcutt's father, George W. Northcutt, was born December 5, 1825 or 1827, in Green County, Kentucky. Two sources provide conflicting years for his birth.

On January 26, 1850, George W. Northcutt married Susan Jane Jackson at Richwoods, south of St. Clair. Susan was the daughter of Phillip Jackson. Born in Washington county, Susan's mother, whose maiden name was Baker, died following the birth of a second child. Her father then married Catherine Hamilton and moved to Phelps county, where Phillip and Catherine raised then or eleven children.

George and Susan Northcutt became the parents of six children, including Melissa; Nancy; William S.; Mary Ann; John Wesley; and Samuel Phillip.

Melissa E. was born November 7, 1850, at Rock Springs in Washington county and died July 25, 1916. She married Jacob "Jake" Miller, the son of Jacob and Mary (Shadrick) Miller.

Their children included George W., who married Susan Jane Jackson; William L., whose wife was Melvina; Mary Ann; Frank Albert, who was born in September, 1875, and married Matilda Pickles on March 17, 1918;

Susan E. and Christian C. Miller.

Nancy Jane Northcutt was born February 25, 1852. Nancy was blind, did not marry, and died December 16, 1923.

William S. Northcutt, born December 14, 1854, married Amanda Hays on February 20, 1876. She was the daughter of William Hays and Eliza (Farrow).

William and Amanda had seven children, including John, born in 1878; Albert L., born in 1879; Effie Mae, who was born December 20, 1880, and married William Henry Troutt on August 6, 1904; Phillip Samuel, born in 1882 (name is sometimes listed as Samuel Phillip), Lillie Jane Hulsey; Bessie Lee, born 1884; George E., born 1885; Susan Northcutt, who died in infancy, noted as "while cutting teeth"; Fannie B. and Clara Ellen Northcutt.

Mary Ann Northcutt, born April 18, 1856, married Andy Miller.

John Wesley Northcutt became the proprietor of the Hulsey store. His life was detailed in the Hulsey series. However, I will mention that I recently learned that the 1927 death of his wife, Elizabeth "Betty" (Hulsey) Northcutt, was attributed to typhoid fever.

The youngest, Samuel Phillip Northcutt, was born September 4, 1860, and died December 26, 1942. He married Mary Celia Josephine "Polly" Baldridge, daughter of Darius and Mary (Bryan) Baldridge. In 1915, Samuel was ordained as a Baptist minister. He is remembered by many area old-timers as "Preacher Northcutt." Samuel also served as justice of the peace.

The children of Preacher Northcutt and his wife Polly, included Benjamin; Mary, Dora Belle, Garra Mae, Archie Oscar, Maud Myrtle; William Theodore; and Minnie Blanche Northcutt.

Occasionally, discrepancies in genealogy records provide a good laugh. According to the Family Treemaker software, Samuel Phillip Northcutt died December 26, 1942, and was buried April 30, 1969! Although I have not verified it, I suspect the burial date was for his nephew, the son of William, who bore the same given name.

Although George Northcutt was over 35 years old when the Civil War broke out, he volunteered as a soldier for the Union army. He entered the service on August 28, 1862, leaving his wife to raise their six young children.

George was taken prisoner and spent time in a prisoner-of-war camp at Jackson, Mississippi. George Northcutt died of a fever on March 27, 1863, in Mississippi or Louisiana.

After George's death, Susan applied for a Civil war Pension. Civil War pension applications are an excellent tool for genealogists as the application was required to provide a complete list of their children and other useful data.

George's brother, John Northcutt, also settled south of St. Clair. He first married Emily Smith but, apparently, she died young, without issue. John then married Eliza Baker, a union that produced eleven children.

They were Angeline (Northcutt) Rickner; William Gideon; Nancy Jane; Sarah A. Polete; Samuel, who married

Susan Jackson; George W., who married Rachel Jackson; Jinny Martha; John R.; Eliza Catherine Simmons; Austin; and Susan Gough. Austin Northcutt first married Phoebe McIntosh, then married Anna Alice Hulsey.

Although I do not have more information, I am going to cut my Northcutt genealogy short because it is taking me too deep into Washington county history. A new topic will commence next week.

Decoration Day

Growing up in the twenties and thirties, social life in our rural community centered around the church and school with a number of birthday dinners and family reunions. Every holiday was an occasion for some kind of "get-together,: but it seemed to me that Decoration Day (now Memorial Day), was the most important of the year. I received this impression from our mother Garra (Northcutt) Harmon. Remembering departed loved ones and showing respect to them was very special to her.

The Decoration Day celebration was held at the New Hope Church, which was located where Little Courtois and Indian Creek converged in the Algire Community. The cemetery there was known as Bryant after the man who donated the ground. Church services were irregular - held when a pastor was available. Somehow a pastor was always obtained for Decoration Day.

Showing off the family at their best was part of this day, so well before the bid day, our mother would order new clothes for all the family from the mail order catalogs. I remember one year when the cloche hats were in style and we girls all had one along with patent leather slippers. How dressed up we felt! Dad with his straw-katy and stiff separate shirt collar looked very dapper, along with the boys in their new clothes.

Not all families could afford new clothes, but presented the best appearance possible. Our father, Theodore Harmon, was postmaster at Algire, and along with the general store and farm had a better income than most.

Well in advance of the date, a cemetery working would be held where a general cleaning of the graves and grounds took place. Also, the church had to look its best with well-scrubbed benches, floors, and windows. Water had to be carried from a spring some distance away making it all a rather tiring work day.

The flowers for decorating were usually cut the day before and placed in a tub of water. The next morning they were assembled into bouquets of various sizes. We had a long row of old-fashioned rose bushes along the back fence, peonies and iris along the front year path, and lilacs along the front fence. Our asparagus plant provided the greenery needed to complete the bouquets.

Some people had learned to make the popular crepe flowers which were considered superior and more admired because they would last longer. One person remembers making a tubful of this kind of flowers.

Another important part of the day was the dinner where each woman wanted to be recognized for her cooking ability.

The day before, our mother would do part of this preparation. It usually included boiling one of the home-cured hams which had been saved for this day. It was left overnight in the water in which it was cooked making for a very juicy and flavorful meat. The next morning it would be trimmed of the excess fat and decorated with black pepper dot (made by dipping a finger in black pepper and covering the meat). An alternative meat might be chicken and dressing, or fried chicken. One of our mother's specialties was chicken salad. The boiled chicken was removed from the bone, ground, and then mixed with a thickened broth mixture (no Miracle Whip or salad dressing was available then).

Salad usually was a slaw or potato salad along with a variety of vegetables and homemade pickles. Dessert consisted of fruit pies, cobblers, and cake. Our mother made delicious cream and egg custard pies and a banana cake. This cake was what she called a plain vanilla, made in three layers then put together with a custard-type filling and sliced bananas - a very moist cake and the favorite of our dad.

Families arrived early in order to place flowers on graves - some walked while others arrived in wagons and buggies.

Our family used the farm wagon which had been filled with straw and covered with a quilt for we children to sit on. Our parents and the youngest child sat on the spring seat.

We lived about one and a half miles from the church, but some people came from much greater distances. A few families were getting automobiles at this time, but this was considered quite a luxury.

After a morning sermon (which we children thought lasted forever), there was the sharing of the dinner, which was set out on long tables in a shady grove of trees in back of the church.

The afternoon was spent visiting and decorating the graves, if not done earlier in the morning.

Members of my family buried at the Bryant Cemetery includes a sister, Alice Purneal Harmon, who died at the age of two years, grandparents, uncles and aunts. Also, many friends and neighbors were laid to rest there.

On our way home we would pass by our Uncle Jesse Harmon's house and might stop and visit awhile there. Uncle Jesse had a well with wonderfully cold water which had to be drawn up in a long narrow bucket. Even though we had one of the best springs at home, we thought this water was even better.

After such a happy, eventful day we were glad to be home - put away the good clothes, go barefoot, and relax. Our parents enjoyed reliving the day with conversation about all that had happened and looking forward to the next year.

Remembrances of Hulsey School

Clifford Noakes, my father, was Marion Harmon's cousin. As an adult, Marion had settled in Powell, Wyoming. When Dad retired from the Civil Service in Anchorage, Alaska, he decided to settle there also as the hunting and fishing were so good. One year Dad and I went deer-hunting with Marion. As they rode in the front seat and visited, I sat in the back seat and listened as they relived stories from their childhood.

Marion recalled his days as a student at Hulsey School. His teacher was John Harmon, one of his own relatives. Hulsey School was a one-room schoolhouse where one teacher taught several different age groups. It was a simple wood structure that was heated during cold weather with a wood-burning pot-bellied stove. One morning as the children were entering the classroom, Marion slipped up to the hot stove and threw in a handful of .22 shells thinking no one had seen him. However, a little blonde-haired girl had seen him. Marion tried to threaten her into not telling by giving her mean looks, but when John, the teacher, called the little girl's name during roll call, she smiled coyly and said, "I know a secret." John invited her to come to his desk and just as he began coaxing her to tell her secret, the shells suddenly started going off which sent kids chaotically dodging in all directions.

Evidently pencils were a precious commodities in those days as the teacher provided them and students didn't take them home. They stayed at school in the teacher's desk. Marion, realized that John would have a substitute teacher coming one morning so he got to school early, took the pencils out and buried them hoping that would cancel school for the day. As I recall, the class was without pencils for two or three days. When John returned and heard what had happened, he knew exactly who the culprit was and sent Marion to retrieve the pencils.

Another time, John asked Marion and two other boys to go a short distance from the school and bring back a pre-designated tree for the class to decorate for Christmas. Marion was unimpressed with the tree John had chosen, so the trio set out to find a perfect tree. About two o'clock that afternoon they had to send for reinforcements as the tree they had cut down was too far from school and too big for them drag back by themselves.

New Hope Landmark Baptist Church
of Big Indian Creek, Washington County, Missouri
[Deeded 1903]

This church had many different names and places where the members met each Sunday until this date in 1905. On the Saturday before the second Sunday, January, Brother Hurt opened with a prayer and a motion was made and seconded that the Church of New Hope would be moved to the Bryant cemetery. It was passed by a very large majority.
Brother G. R. Doty Susan Miller, Clerk

Two months later a building committee was formed. It included J. K. Tice, A. Miller, Ben Kimberlin, Carrick Hulsey and Bob Hall.

Through the forty-one years that I have had its records (1893-1934), the church had many baptisms in Indian Creek - Praise the Lord - many marriages and special memories in this lovely community.

St. Stephen's Catholic Church - Richwoods, Missouri
This beautiful church stands on the banks of Little Indian Creek in Washington County, Missouri. It was built in 1918 after the original church was struck by lightning in the bell tower and burned down.

The cemetery has many family members buried there. The Church today is still as much a part of the community as it was throughout its long history.

HISTORY: The Miller Family (Photo). The Bill Millers were a well-known and respected family. William and Jessie Miller were married in 1906 and lived to celebrate more than 60 years of married life. They raised a family of 14 children, most of whom choose to live close to home. The Miller sons and daughters married local girls and boys and raised families of their own. At the time of their deaths in 1967 and 1969, Bill and Jessie (Mr. and Mrs. Miller) had more than 150 descendants, most of them living near Bourbon. Shown here in 1966, at the time of their 60th wedding anniversary are Bill and Jessie Miller with eight of their children and their spouses. They are, standing: Eugene Miller, Lawrence Pennock, Roy Miller and wife Effie Mae, Jim Miller and wife Julie, Walter Griffith, Bill Miller, Jr. and Raymond Miller. Seated are Martha Miller, Mildred Pennock, Grace Coffman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller, Sr., Elizabeth Griffith, Nellie Miller and Edna Miller.

Jessie once said Bill proposed by asking her if she would come and cook for him. She cooked all right! As the years went by she had fourteen additional mouths to feed. For breakfast each morning, she would bake fifty biscuits, then bake again for the children's school lunches. One must remember that they lived on a farm and raised all their own food. They were burned out completely three times. They also survived the Depression. Bill sold wood each week to buy the necessities that weren't raised on the farm. They always trusted in God and their greatest joy came from living long enough to see all of their children become Christians.

The Tribe of William Miller Poem

'Twas on the shores of Courtois Creek Where many pretty, wild things grew,
Was born the tribe of William Miller, of his Jessie, sweet and true.
Fourteen savage little Indians, full of fire and fun and wit;
Seven scouts and seven squaws that never knew just when to quit.

Never knew a day of plenty or a day of want for much,
For cornbread, mixed with love and laughter, can be a feast, with beans and such.
Fourteen places at the table must have been an awesome sight,
But even more so would have been twenty-eight feet to wash at night.

Through the loving grace of God, and angels watching from above,
Each grew up and came to know the value of work and the joy of love.
Through the years the growing tribe spread throughout the country side.
Many hearts soon learned to love the happy, healthy Miller Tribe.

In those carefree, happy years many wedding knots were tied.
Now we stand amazed to see how those knots have multiplied.
The patter of those twenty-eight feet have suddenly become a roar,
And if you'll wait a little while I'm sure there'll be a hundred more.

If we strive to serve our Lord- if we walk the narrow way,
This huge tribe of William Miller will have a great Reunion Day.
We will gather at the river, as we did in days gone by,
Only in a fairer land, a land in which we'll never die.

Some are there now, gone before us, gone ahead to show the way.
Lord help us to follow after for that "Great Reunion Day."

!"Highlights in the Life of BENJAMIN EDWARD KIMBERLIN, (a son of Jacob and Delilah Harper Kimberlin)", by daughter Ethel Shaffer, 1986.

Jacob Kimberlin was born March 6, 1831, in Virginia. His family came to Missouri when Jacob was 14 years old. He was of English parents.

Delilah Harper was born June 27, 1834, in Ohio and came to Missouri when a teenager. Her parents were German. Jacob and Delilah were married January 27, 1853 and lived at Anthonies Mill, Missouri, all their lives. Jacob died January 13, 1913. Delilah died May 20, 1920.

Benjamin Edward was born July 14, 1869, and from early boyhood had a pioneering spirit. When he heard that the U. S. Government was planning to put up a huge parcel of land in Indian Territory (now Oklahoma) for homesteading, he immediately made plans to be there. He made the trip by train; and when he arrived, all he could see was miles of prairie with no houses - just Indian huts and Indians. He said he was cautioned by the U. S. Agents to watch out for Indians and rattlesnakes.

The homesteaders were to win their land by taking part in a gigantic horse race. Winners were determined by being the first man to get off his horse and drive a stake, with an attached flag, on the corner of one of the 160 acres being offered. So the first thing Ben did was buy two horses and a covered wagon. The wagon was his home for several months. He trained the best horse for racing; and just when he was getting good, the poor animal stepped in a hole and injured his leg. So then he started training the other horse, but he only had three weeks to train him.

His goal was twenty miles to the south in river bottom land, but of course many wanted to make it to that area as it was more productive land. The morning of the race, people were in a line several miles wide awaiting the blasts from shotguns all along the line, which was the signal to take off. U. S. Agents were everywhere to see that things were done right. Excitement was high; and the racers were tired because they had camped all night and gotten very little rest. The heat was intense and water was scarce.

Finally they were off. Some dropped out within a few hours. Benjamin made it to the twelve-mile stake, and he said he knew his horse was about exhausted; so he decided to try for the next corner. When he drove his stake in the ground, he saw another man driving a stake; so he quickly removed his stake and ran on foot to the next corner and was lucky to be the first one there. And to prove Lady Luck was with him: When the other man went to file his claim, he learned that that particular spot had been reserved for a school and he was out. Ben was sure glad he had moved his stake instead of arguing with him about who was first!

After getting his flag number approved by an agent, Ben rode his horse slowly back to the spot where the Land Offices were. Imagine his surprise when he arrived there to see a Tent City which, as he said, "had shot up out of the prairie like Missouri toadstools! There was a grocery store, restaurant, blacksmith shop, and several land offices, and lights everywhere (kerosene lanterns), and hundreds of people camping.

The night was spent in celebrating with lots of noise including shotgun blasts, which seemed to be their weapon for celebration as well as for hunting and for protection from Indians. Indians were on hand for the night's celebration, dressed in their feathers and beads, and from a picture he brought home - not much of anything else! They were as naked as some of our present day entertainers! The Indians were very friendly and never gave any trouble to Ben while he lived there. He said they would come into town every Saturday night, dressed in their full regalia, and dance and yell their blood curdling Indian calls most of the night.

The "Tent City" that sprang up overnight is now Blackwell, Oklahoma.

The next day was spent standing in long lines awaiting his turn to have his claim registered and receiving homesteading rules and regulations.

They were required to live on the land for five years and to make certain improvements before they got complete ownership. Ben's first improvement was a shallow well, which he dug with pick and shovel. At fifteen or twenty feet he found water, which was drawn up with a bucket and rope. The next improvement was a sod house. Sod was cut into squares and stacked like brick. The floor was dirt. Windows and door and roof were made from boards. It was about 12 x 20 feet and, of course, that was kitchen, dining room, bedroom, and parlor! He then returned to Missouri (by train) and married Nancy Jackson and took her to their new home in Oklahoma. Poor Nancy! I can imagine her look of horror when she saw that sod house!

Benjamin and Nancy had three children. Hazel Anne, born April 12, 1894; Jessie Delilah, born February 20, 1896; and Lester, born in early 1897. Then came tragedy. Nancy and Lester both died soon after his birth. They are both buried in Blackwell, Oklahoma.

Benjamin brought his two little daughters back by train to his parents' home in Missouri; and they and his brother Orville and wife Sadie took care of them. He returned to Oklahoma and after a few months, his homestead claim was legalized. He then sold the farm, loaded his possessions into a covered wagon and headed home. The trip home took thirty days. The weather was cold. The roads were muddy trails and the traveling was slow. He had a small stove in the wagon and he gathered firewood along the road. His meals were cooked on this little stove and consisted mostly of bacon and eggs which he bought from farmers. The people were very friendly. They let him camp overnight in their barn lots and usually gave him feed for his horses. He said the little stove was wonderful, but it did create a fire hazard because the smoke pine would get the canvas top of the covered wagon too hot for safety if you made too much fire.

When Ben finally arrived home, his two little girls did not know him. That was a real blow to his ego, but he soon got to them with his love and attention.

A few days after arriving home he rode a horse through sleet and snow to the closest bank, at Potosi, thirty miles away, to deposit his cash for safe keeping. He had carried the money with him all the way from Oklahoma and was afraid of being robbed because most people thought he was rich!!! I think it was $2700!

1898 was a busy year. He bought a farm on Indian Creek in the north edge of Washington County and proceeded to make it a permanent home.

His first improvement was a six-room frame house painted white, trimmed in green; it was considered a show place as most area dwellings were log houses. There were lots of trees on the farm, and they were cut down and the logs made into lumber by a nearby sawmill. So the material for the house did not cost very much, and Ben and his brother did the building. (When I was growing up there, I was really proud that we had the nicest house in the community.) Before the house was quite finished, Ben married Dora Belle Northcutt, whose parents lived on the next farm south. Benjamin and Dora Belle had two children: Ethel Mae Kimberlin, born August 20, 1899; and Myrtle Alice Kimberlin, born May 9, 1902. Then tragedy struck again. Myrtle Alice died in February 1904 of pneumonia.

Ben and Dora lived on the farm, raised their three daughters, and in 1923 sold the farm and bought a 600-acre farm on the Meramec River near Sullivan, [Franklin County], Missouri. They lived there until they retired in 1945 and moved into Sullivan, where they lived their remaining years. They had leased the Meramec River farm to a farmer.

Benjamin Edward Kimberlin was an industrious, civic-minded man who tried to modernize living conditions wherever he lived. This is best shown by his pioneering days on Indian Creek, which was a sparsely settled community when he moved there in 1898. He instigated and helped build a church in 1905, a new school building in 1906-1907, which replaced an old, log structure. He sponsored a company telephone line from Sullivan to the community in 1910. He worked hard on road improvements and, last but not least, owned the first automobile in the community. He bought a shiny new Ford Sedan in 1917 and the price was approximately $800. We were as proud as we would be of a $30,000 Cadillac now.

My father was a loving, caring parent who worked hard to provide for his family. I am PROUD to be his daughter.

BENJAMIN EDWARD KIMBERLIN died April 16, 1954.

DORA BELLE KIMBERLIN died July 7, 1953.

Benjamin and Dora had the following children:

+ 475 F i. Ethel Mae KIMBERLIN was born 20 Aug 1899 and died 20 Feb 1991.

476 F ii. Myrtle Alice KIMBERLIN was born 9 May 1902 in Algire, Washington, Missouri. She died Feb 1904 in Algire, Washington, Missouri and was buried in New Hope Cem., Washington Co., Missouri.

Charles and Minnie had the following children:

+ 514 M i. Clifford William NOAKES was born 11 May 1922 and died 2 Jan 1991.
+ 515 F ii. Elizabeth Josephine NOAKES was born 9 Nov 1924 and died 23 Oct 1993.
+ 516 M iii. Charles Phillip NOAKES was born 24 Aug 1934.

My father, Clifford William Noakes, was born in Success, Missouri, May 11, 1922, and always spoke fondly of his childhood and the many adventures it provided. Dad grew up in an environment that built muscle, prowess and power. He was always doing something that contributed to his marvelous physique. He swam against the currents of the Meramac River, fished, hunted deer, squirrel, possum, raccoon, etc., and ran a trap line. He hated snakes with a vengeance as he had been bitten by a copperhead while fishing when he was a boy. It nearly killed him.

He grew up during the Great Depression. He said that fish and game became very plentiful in the country because city people didn't have the gas to go hunting and fishing. He told of soup lines in St. Louis where people waited in line half the day to get a bowl of soup and a piece of bread. Then they returned immediately to the back of the line because by the time they reached the front of the soup line again it was time for their dinner meal. He said people dropped dead like flies because of the heat in the summer and the cold in the winter.

If someone shot a deer, since they had no refrigeration, they would send word out to their neighbors and soon there would be a huge party complete with homemade ice cream. Everyone brought something. Dad said in those days they had root cellars to keep their bottled foods in and spring houses built along side creeks where they could set their milk, cream and butter in the cold water to keep it from spoiling. Grandpa Noakes had a smokehouse and a recipe for curing ham that had people from all over the countryside bringing him their hams to cure. Dad regretted not getting that recipe from his father before he passed away.

As a little boy, Dad's maternal grandfather, Samuel Phillip Northcutt, taught him how to trap and run a trapline which he checked going to and coming from school. When it came time to trade furs his Grandpa Samuel Phillip taught him how to get the most money for his furs. There were three fur-buying establishments in the area. Grandfather told Dad to take his furs to the best trading firm first. They would separate the pelts into three categories...good, better, best. They would pay top dollar for "best" and the price would come down for "better" and "good." Grandfather told him to sell only the "best" furs at the first company. Then he was to go to the next best trading firm. When they separated his pelts into the same three categories, Dad was to sell for the highest dollar only the pelts that company had marked best. Finally, the third and last company also divided his pelts into three categories. This way he got top dollar for the majority of his pelts.

Dad told us it used to take them hours to get to town when he was a child because they had to go in a buckboard. I'd seen buckboards in westerns on television and in the movies. He was not happy when I asked him if he was born in the "olden days." During his teen years, his father bought one of those "new-fangled"cars. I can't remember if it was a Model A or a Model T, but it didn't take long before Dad became an expert driver. Once he learned to drive, it was hard for his parents to keep him home. Later he taught my mother to drive.

Dad was a crack shot most of his life. My sister, Jeannie, and I have been fishing with him and seen him shoot grasshoppers in the head with his .22 pistol. He used them for fish bait.

When he was only eight or nine years old, all he wanted for Christmas was a .22 caliber rifle. With great anxiety he waited for the magic morning to come. Upon awakening, to his great disappointment, he could not see anything that even suggested a rifle might be waiting to reward his patience. His father and mother, urged him to hunt around the tree some more. Hopefully, Dad returned to the tree only to be met by disappointment again. This went on two or three more times until Dad finally found his rifle tucked up in the branches of the Christmas tree close to the tree trunk. Was he ever one happy little boy!

At some point after this, he and his sister, Aunt Betty Jo, contracted small pox. It was a dreadful time for the family. Small pox was a highly contagious disease accompanied by a high fever which put the patient in bed. It begins with a rash, usually on the face, the palms, and the soles of the feet. The rash turned into painful, pustular pimples that later would scab over leaving scars. Small pox usually ended in death. Somehow, an old country doctor miraculously pulled both children through. (It is possible that it may have been Doc Sayman, the creator of Sayman salve as Dad and his family had quite an association with Doc Sayman for many years). Even after the children were past the worst of the disease, they were left quite weakened. Daddy told Mother that as he got a little strength, his parents would open the window and let him shoot his beloved rifle from his sick bed.

However, the small pox had scarred Dad's young eardrums and from that time on he had significant problems with his hearing.

So significant a problem that when World War II broke out, whenever Dad tried to enlist in one of the armed services he was turned away because he couldn't pass the hearing test. In those days it was a very patriotic thing for young men to enlist to protect their homes and families. After he'd been turned down by everyone but the Navy, he tried a different tactic. During the physical, when he reached the man performing the hearing tests, Dad said he didn't know if he'd be able to pass because he'd gone out drinking the night before and had a terrible hangover complete with a loud buzzing in his head. The man automatically passed him on his hearing test. Dad was in the Navy.

Though Dad had received the highest score in shooting for his group, somehow he was assigned to be a cook aboard a naval ship. Once when they were helping move some heavy metal objects, one of them fell on his foot creating such painful problems they had to put him off at the base in Pearl Harbor where he could get better medical attention. He finished out the war there.

Fist-fighting was part of his heritage. He said one year at school there was a boy who bullied him. Dad was afraid of the boy who blacked Dad's eyes and bloodied his nose. Upon his arrival home, his father told him he'd better not come home looking like that again unless he'd won the battle. Perhaps it was my imagination, but as Dad told the story I could not help feel his fear and frustration of such an assignment. The next day he had no choice but to go to school. Sure enough, after school the boy began beating on him again. They ended up rolling into a ditch where the boy sat on Dad's chest and began to strike him in the face with his fist. All of a sudden, Dad heard his father's voice. He looked up to see Grandpa Charlie on the ditch bank. Grandpa said, "You beat him, or I'll beat you when we get home." Dad said immediately he tipped the older boy off, sat on top of his chest and finished the fight. From that point on, Dad became a fighter.

He was quick, powerful, and athletic and quickly earned a base-wide "Don't mess with me" reputation which followed him into the Navy and throughout most of his adult life. During Frontier Days in Cheyenne, Wyoming, Dad used to be a bouncer in the Plains Hotel bar as a seasonal Sheriff's Deputy. He was a no-nonsense man that believed in right and justice. He expected it from man and animal alike. I've seen him wrestle a full-sized, rebellious horse to the ground. When it was over the horse was more than willing to do whatever Dad asked him to do. Later in life, tempered by the teachings of Christ, he confessed that he'd found a better way to handle difficult situations.

It was while he was in Pearl Harbor that he first saw our Mother, Elizabeth Leah McCartney. Because of his foot injury, he was assigned to sit in the tall chair tower where he could make certain no one took cuts in the chow line. That was how he first saw Mother. Dad made arrangements with his buddies in the Mess Hall to make sure she always got the best cuts of meat, etc. Mother didn't realize Dad was sweet on her and she said her first impression of Dad was "I'd sure hate to run into that guy in a dark alley." Nevertheless, Dad finally persuaded her to go on a date and the rest is history. They were married on Oahu, Hawaii, November 13, 1945.

He was an expert ice skater, solo and in "pairs." He did equally well on roller skates. Once he was out of money to take mother on a date so he accepted a bet that he couldn't down a bottle of liquor in a specified amount of time. He won the bet. How could he have known Mother wanted to go roller-skating? By the time they got to the rink, the liquor had taken its toll. Mom said she couldn't figure out what was wrong with him, but he skated so erratically she couldn't hold onto his hand. He ended up going over the protective barricade and up into the bleachers. She said he was skating so fast around the circular building and in and out of the bleacher supports, she was afraid he would was going to crash. Dad said, "I never fell down and when I got back to the safety of the bench, I took my skates off and never went skating again!"

After he married mother, he joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, otherwise known as the Mormons.

Dad's father, Charles Marion Noakes, had served in World War I. One day in battle, the horse he was riding was struck by a cannon ball and blown out from under him. Though he was spared, of course, the horse was killed instantly. Grandpa Noakes knew first-hand the horrors and tragedies of war. Being of Indian descent, he had a head of black hair. Dad said his father worried so much about his son being in the war, that when Dad returned home a few years later, his father's head was snowy white and remained so until his death many years later.

Grandpa Charlie Noakes was also a powerful man. Dad told how his father could rest a horse's belly on his back and lift the animal completely off the ground. He was very good with horses and his animals trusted and loved him. At the fair, he easily won prizes for being able to tell how much a horse weighed. His favorite cats were orange toms. Some of his tomcats were so trusting of him they would ride on his shoulders and one even rode occasionally with him when he rode horseback.

Dad's mother, Minnie Blanche Northcutt Noakes had a quilt frame on pulleys that could be raised to the ceiling when she wasn't quilting and lowered for quilting when female friends dropped by for a visit. Back then, flour came in large cotton sacks printed with calico patterns. These were used for clothing and quilting and there was no such thing then as permanent press. Everything wrinkled with each washing and had to be ironed with an iron heated on the wood stove. Dad told me one thing that broke his heart was watching his mother launder their clothes on a scrub board. He said he hoped he would never have to see his daughters have to do their wash on a scrub board.

She was an expert cook using a wood cookstove. She had no knobs to automatically set the interior temperature of the oven. She tested the wind direction, set the damper, opened the oven door and tested for temperature by passing her hand quickly through the heat. She baked fresh loaves of bread everyday for the men to eat when they came in from the fields. Dad grew up in a household that believed you fed a working man generously and well.

!BIOGRAPHY:

Mary Elizabeth Baldridge and Oliver Augustus Ramsey were married December 1, 1912. They started married life in a mining camp in Mine La Motte, Madison County, Missouri, living in a tent. She always said they were better off than some; they had a wood floor in their tent.

Gus became a machine repairman for St. Joseph Lead Company in Desloge, St. Francois County, and they raised eight children there. "Mae" stayed home raising kids and a garden. They always had a large garden and a house full of extra kids and family. Mae pulled a little red wagon to the company store filled with green beans and garden produce to sell during the Depression to help the family when work was cut to one day a week.

The family was spaced over a period of twenty years between the oldest and youngest -- seven girls and one boy. The oldest girls were married and had children while the youngest was growing up.

The girls had a variety of occupations and married; some moved to different areas of Missouri, while some remained locally.

"Bill", the only boy, went into the military service at seventeen and stayed until retirement. He lives in Columbus, Georgia, with his wife Joyce. They had four children. One son died about three years ago. A son and a daughter live in Columbia. One son is in the Navy in California. They have four grandchildren.

Beulah, the eldest daughter, lost her husband Harry about a year ago [1996]. She lives in Columbia, Missouri, with a daughter. Her other daughter is a professor in Houston, Texas. Her son died in Vietnam.

"Katie" (Katherine) is married to Bill; they live in Cape Girardeau and are retired. She lost a daughter in infancy and one at the age of forty-one.

"Blondie" (Golda Lee) died at sixty-eight; she was preceded in death by her husband Gene. She has two married daughters; one in St. Louis County and one in Arkansas. She has four grandsons.

"Bee" (Bertha) and Homer Stotler live in Desloge. They are retired and both have had heart surgery. Homer raises a large garden each year and they can vegetables. Bee makes the best pickled beets around.

They give away half of what they raise. Homer loves to hunt and they are big workers in their church. They lost a son at birth, but claim several nieces and nephews as their own.

Doris died at sixty-one. Her husband, Rod, and family live in and around Saint Louis. There are four daughters, one son and several grandchildren. She was a WAVE during World War II and worked for the federal government.

"Peg" (Pauline) and her husband Paul live in a retirement home in Farmington. They both have had health problems but try to keep busy with crafts and feeding the birds. She recently lost her only daughter.

Carole and Carl live in Scott City, Missouri. Both are retired, he from Wetterau Foods and she from State Employment Services. They have three married children -- two daughters, one son -- and seven grandchildren. They love to trout fish. He hunts, throws horseshoes, and helps with Little League. She gardens and enjoys grandchildren. -- Carole Ramsey Reddick, 1997.

Autobiography, Agnes Irene Northcutt:
As computers phased out, the work I excelled at was a "math checker". I was assigned miscellaneous duties, and never could decide if they really needed me or just kept me for a pet because they liked me so well. My salary was more than my type of work paid. I think because of my excessive health insurance cost to the company, and my convenient age of 70, they gave me a generous bonus and said, "Stay home." After working all my life, many times at two jobs, I was not needed! I tried to find another job but was told I was "over-qualified" . . . (They didn't dare say "over-age"!) So I grieved for about a year, then got busy enjoying the life I had and the way the Lord has provided all I've needed and sometimes things I hadn't realized I needed.

!Biography:

William Henry Troutt and Effie Mae Northcutt were married August 4, 1904.

As I sit down with pen in hand, my thoughts go back to my family many years ago. Being the youngest of ten children, I am getting much of my information from what I have been told by my dear mother and some of my older brothers and sisters; some I do remember.

There were ten children in my Dad's family, and also ten in my mother's family, which might have something to do with there being ten in our family. Long ago, parents had big families. Of course there were no televisions, radios, cars, planes, washers and dryers or many other conveniences in those days. It was early to bed and early to rise.

My Mother and Dad were hard-working people: they had to be with ten children.

My mother told me about having four babies in diapers at once; she had one baby a little over a year old when along came twins, so no time for training babies! Then, in about two years, another baby came.

In those days there was no such thing as "throw-away" diapers; all they had was flour sacks.

Mother also told me she had a baby one night and had to get up the next morning and go to the barn and milk the cows. My Dad couldn't milk, and the boys were too small.

Nearly everything we needed was raised on the farm. My mother made most of our clothes.

I don't know why my Dad decided to move from the farm at Undine to Mineral Point, Missouri. I think the mining [at Mineral Point] was the main reason. He and my oldest brother went to Mineral Point on horseback and found a nice home. Dad bought the house and left my brother, who was about sixteen, giving him a shotgun to keep at his bedside. That was about 1919.

My brother met some of the young people in this small village; some of whom wanted him to have a dance in the house that my Dad bought. My brother told them no, that his Dad would skin him alive if he did that.

The farm at Undine had to be sold and arrangements made to move the family. I was about nine months old in 1920 when the family moved. I have been told that my high chair fell from the wagon and was lost during the journey.

We all lived to adult life: six boys and four girls. All four of us girls lived to celebrate our fiftieth wedding anniversaries.

Time goes by so fast. Now only three of our family are still living.

My Dad had been married before, so we had one step-sister. Dad's first wife passed away with the flu.

My oldest sister was ten years old when I was born, so she did a lot of taking care of me. She told me she let me suck her big toe to keep me from crying. I told her, "I guess that's what made me so pretty!"

One of my brothers fell and broke his jawbone and was never very well afterwards; he died when he was twenty-five.

I'm sure there was never a dull moment around that country home; you could say we had a picnic three times a day. I am still wondering how my poor mother lasted so long. She passed away in 1962 -- at the age of 82. Our father died in 1939 at the age of 75 years.

My brothers and sisters were:

Barney Lee Troutt
Rubeon Earl Troutt
William Taft Troutt
Golda Ellen Troutt Cash
David Arthur Troutt
Pearl Mae Troutt Swan
Oval Oscar Troutt
Ruth Bell Troutt Powell
Joseph Henry Troutt

Clifford Noakes, son of Minnie Blanche (Northcutt) and Charles Marion Noakes, grandson of Samuel Phillip and Mary Celia Josephine (Baldridge) Northcutt, has fond memories of family fun with Roy and his father. In a tomato fight, Clifford ducked behind the barn for momentary respite from the fierce onslaught of juicy ripe missiles and was struck a solid blow in the face when he peeked around the corner of the barn to reconnoiter the enemy's position. He misses those wonderful companions and good times he knew as a boy.

Ruby and Orville Midgett moved to their farm at Quaker in 1946, where they lived until Orville's death November 3, 1964. Ruby now lives in Bismarck. Orville's parents were John and Lissie Beers Midgett, of Quaker.

!IN MEMORIAM -- In memory Of Harry M. (Mel) Vandiver by his loving family and friends who miss him.

A PARABLE OF TOMORROW

I looked at the mountain. "It is too hard, Lord," I said. "I cannot climb."

"Take my hand," he whispered. "I will be your strength." I saw the road. "It is so long, Lord," I said. "Already it grows dark."

"Take my love," he answered. "I will guard your feet." I looked at the sky.

"But the sun is gone," I said. "Already it grows dark." "Take the lantern of my word," he whispered. "That will be light enough."

We climbed. The road was narrow and steep, but the way was bright. And when the thorns reached out, they found his hand before they touched my own. And when the path grew rough, I knew it was his love that kept my feet from stumbling. Then I grew very tired. "I can go no farther, Lord," I said.

He answered, "Night is gone. Look up, my child."

I looked, and it was dawn. Green valleys stretched below.

"I can go on alone now," I said. And then I saw the marks: "Lord, thou art wounded. Thy hands are bleeding, they feet bruised. Was it for me?"

He whispered, "I did it gladly."

Then I fell at his feet. "Lord, lead me on, " I cried. "No road too long, no valley too deep, if thou art with me."

We walk together now, and shall forever.

Letter Mrs. Bertha Stotler, 13 November 1995, in possession of Mrs. Clifford Noakes:

"I married Homer in 1942 after going together for four years. We had our 50th (Wedding) Anniversary April 11, 1992, with a renewal of our wedding vows in our church close by. There were about 150 (friends and family in attendance). We had a nice dinner afterward.

"Homer was a truck driver for over thirty years; he has been retired over twelve years now and always makes a big garden. He likes to hunt and fish. Two years ago he killed a large deer -- 14 points -- which after he had mounted hangs on our dining room wall. He came in this morning with his deer; it was eight points.

"I like to cook; I used to have a lot of dinners, but I have cut down. I let the younger ones do it.

"My grandmother (Dollie) Baldridge gave me the name of Bee. She started calling me Bee Bee when I was a baby; now some people don't know my real name!"

Note: Included in Bee's letter were lovely photographs and pictures of the family with copies of obituaries included in notes pertaining to members of the family, for which we are indeed appreciative.

LETTER, Mrs. Bertha Stotler, 3 December 1995:

"I was the only one of Mom's kids born in a hospital; (we) lived in St.
Louis at the time; my Dad worked as a carpenter. Later we lived in Cantwell, Missouri; my Dad worked in the Lead Mines in Desloge. Some of my sisters were born in Cantwell, which was a small town adjoining Desloge; now it's all Desloge.

"I started grade school in Cantwell before we moved to Desloge, a few blocks from the mines where my Dad worked. I attended school through the eighth grade, then went to work. Homer and I began dating when I was sixteen, and we went together four years before we were married.
I was 19 and Homer was 20. Homer worked at jobs when he was a young man; his father died at the age of 54 when Homer was just 14. At 20 Homer joined the Army; was stationed in Oklahoma and Texas for two years. We lost our baby just before he left for overseas. He was in the Battle of the Bulge and, after crossing the Rhine River, was in three battles. He received the Bronze Star for saving a man's life.

"After returning home he was a big tractor and trailer driver; he worked for the lead company as a driver and in the store warehouse and retired at age 61.

"Every year in the fall Homer's Army buddies have a reunion. It is held in different places: Fort Smith, Arkansas; St. Paul, Minnesota (twice).
We didn't make it this year, "due to sickness". Maybe next year; we'll wait and see.

"Back to myself: I started out doing housework. (That's hard!) Later I worked at the shirt factory and also the shoe factory. We went through the depression. That was a hard lesson, but we learned a lot -- mostly that you earn what you get.

"We had a good Christmas with my sister Carol and family; she lives about a hundred miles south. Katheryn was there, too. In fact, Homer plays Santa Claus; he has for many years. We had a lot of snow this year (good for the ground, but not "self")."

Note: More pictures were enclosed; again we rejoiced.

God made a wonderful mother,
A mother who never grows old;
He made her smile of the sunshine
And He molded her heart of pure gold;
in her eyes He place bright shining stars,
In her cheeks fair roses, you see,
God made a wonderful mother,
And He gave that dear mother to me.
